NURSE'S NOTES

Parents who requested private physicals for their kindergarten students are urged to have them completed as soon as possible. If you need another form, please call to request another form. Also, parents of kindergarten who requested private dental exams are urged to turn them in as soon as possible. Additional dental forms are also available in my office.

Thank you,
Mrs. Jensen

This Holiday season, the staff at The Electric City Trolley Museum invited a team of students from Lackawanna County Schools to participate in their Electric City "Trim-a-Tree" Challenge. Students were asked to decorate their tree based on a Fairy Tale. Students from West decorated their tree from Jack and the Beanstalk. Students from East decorated their tree from Alice in Wonderland". You are invited to visit the trolley museum between December 1st and December 28th 2018 to enjoy the Electric City "Trim-a-Tree" Challenge and take part in voting for your favorite decorated tree. Winners will be announced on December 30, 2018.

On behalf of the Riverside School Board, its administration and staff, we extend to all of our families at West a most enjoyable Winter Break. There will be an early dismissal on Friday, December 21st beginning at 12:10 P.M. Parents are urged to make the appropriate arrangements for their child on that day. Classes will resume on Wednesday, January 2nd.

PTA SANTA'S WORKSHOP

It's hard to believe that the winter break will be here shortly. We will be having our annual Santa's Workshop on December 12, 13 and 14. A money envelope and informational flyer will be sent home.
