With only a few returning players to the season, the Lady Vikes Tennis Team had to rebuild their program with a whole new set of girls. Although there were some tough losses, most of the matches were very close and almost ended with victory. With hard work and dedication, the Lady Vikes Tennis team are sure to come back and rise to the top.

Soccer

The Riverside Soccer Team had an eventful year. With seniors Joe Belveduto, Matt Derenick, Jimmy Segilia, and Eric Vanhoof leading the way, the Vikings held a final record of 1-10. The team stuck together through thick and thin and gave it their all throughout the whole season.

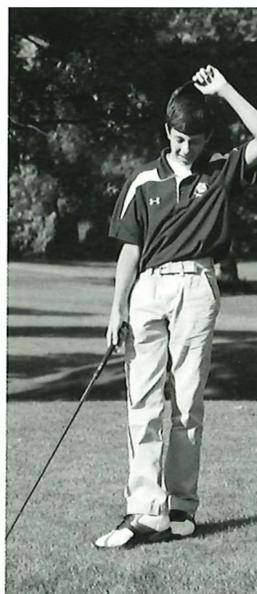

Golf

First Row: Sal DeFrancesco, McKenzie Evanusa, Aaron Oustrich, Evan Harbert, and Justin Copp.
Second Row: Carl Pugliese, Shawn Soroka, Adam Leasure, Casey Holman, and Coach Coyle.

The year was a great one for the golf team. The team had a new coach this year, Mr. Coyle, which many of the players were a little skeptical about because they had been so close with their former one, Mr. Helcoski. By the end of the season the team was very close and they all liked their new coach. The team even gave each other nicknames like Curb (Carl) and BEANz (Shawn). Although the golf team did not make it to play-offs, the new experiences (from coaches to nicknames) really brought the team together.

Cross Country

First Row: Samantha Keonela, Kayla Creedon, Morgan Gable, Alyssa Mendos, Cassie Seymon, Aubrey Edstrom, and Sarah Murphy.

In addition to the regular season, both varsity and junior-high cross country members volunteered at the Steamtown Marathon and a Walk/Run in memory of Gary Lukasiewicz. Cassie Seymon was the top varsity girl runner, while Nick Strenkoski was the top boy runner. Nick also placed 15th at Districts which qualified him to States at Hershey. With the team's overall dedication and hard work, it brought them together like a family.

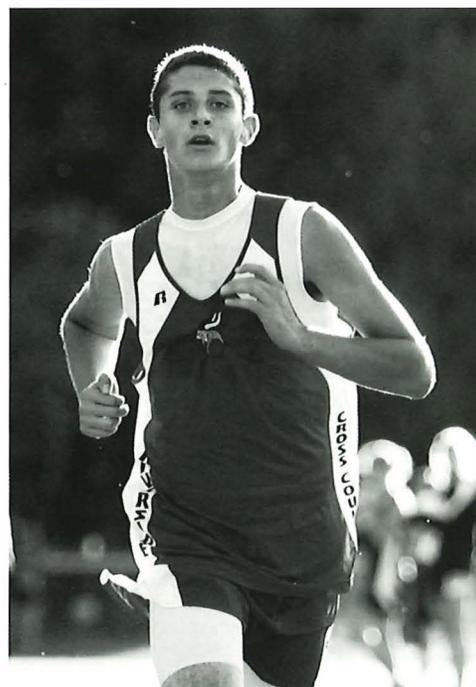

After their race, varsity runners get muddy at the Cross Country Districts held at Elk Lake.

Below: Randy Kinzel looking to pass out any runners ahead.

Senior members Eric Vanhoof, Aubrey Edstrom, Samantha Keonela, Kayla Creedon, and Nicholas Strenkoski with Coach Kapelan.

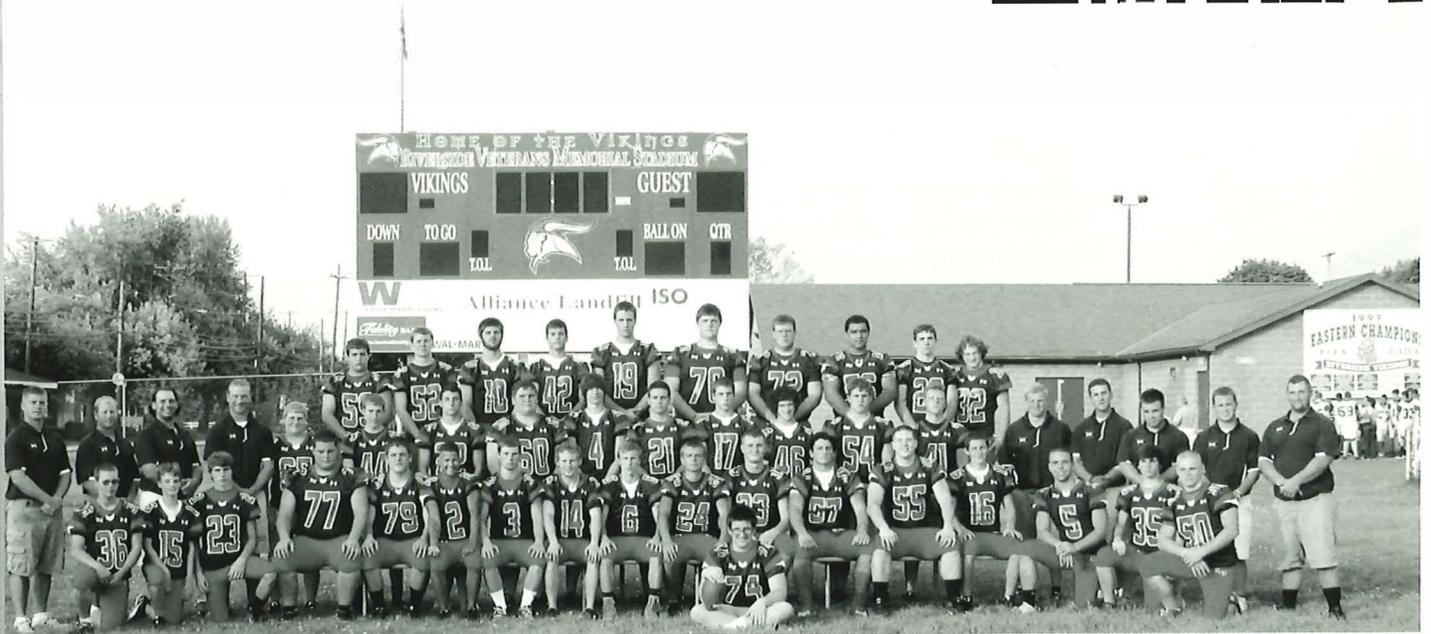

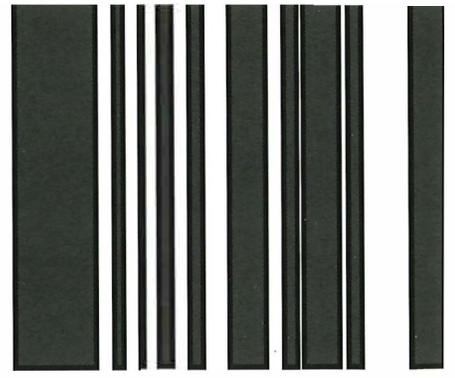

The season began with high hopes as the Vikings were considered among the top teams in the state. The return of experienced players and a successful pre-season full of camps and scrimmages only added to the excitement of the season. Throughout the season the Vikings faced adversity - a huge come from behind against Carbondale, a shoot out at North Pocono and an overtime victory at home against the Mid Valley. Disappointment came late in the season with losses against Lakeland and Dunmore. The season ended on a sour note when the Vikings fell to Old Forge in the District 2 semi finals.

It was a record setting season for quarterback Nick Dranchak who finished with over 5,000 career passing yards. However, without the efforts of Jaron Vishnesky, Jimmy Tucker, Dave Sweetman, Nick Killino and Mike Loftus, the record may never have come to pass.

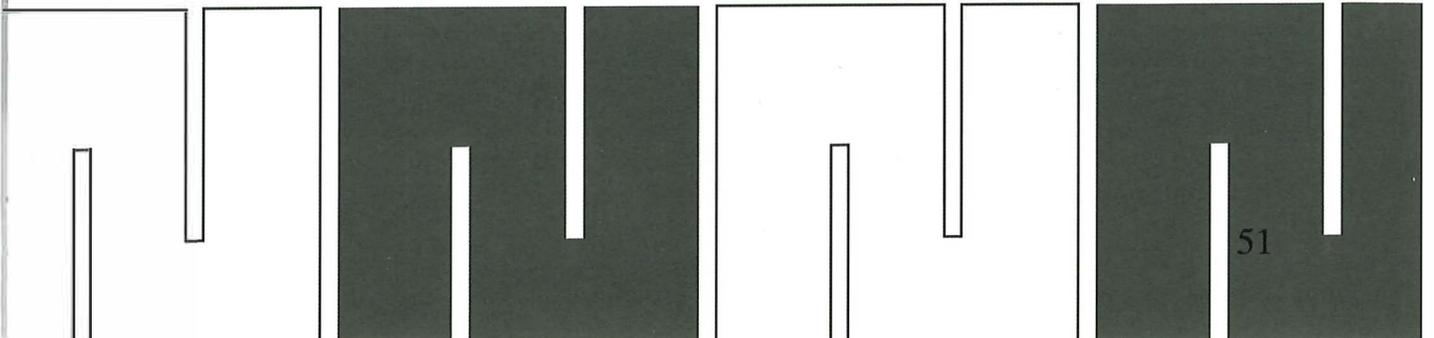

Football

Never Give Up

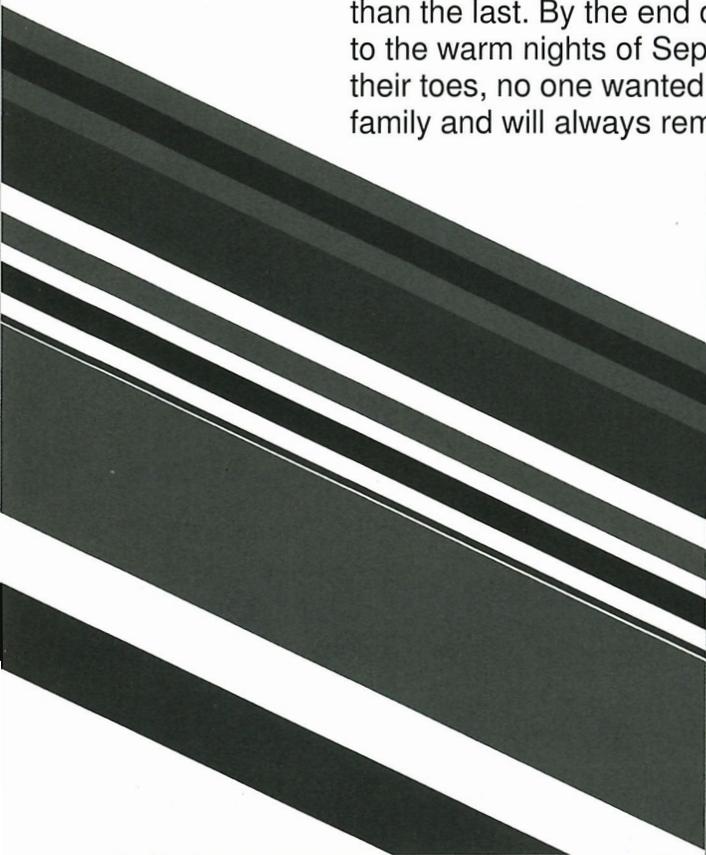

2012-2013 Football Team

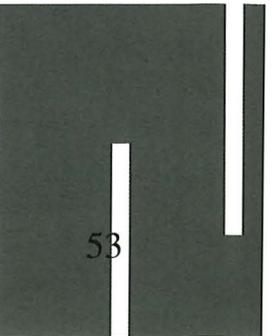

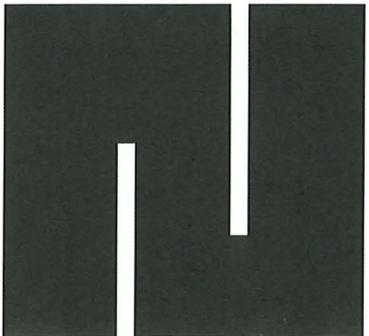

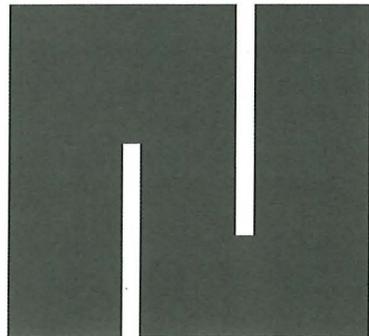

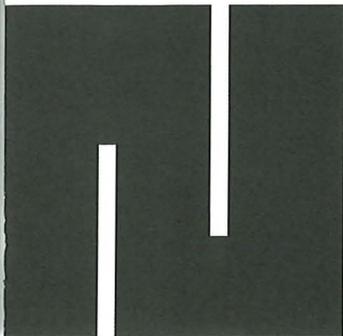

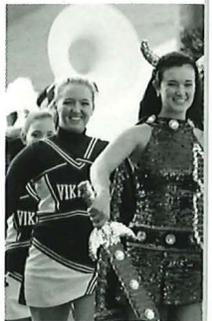

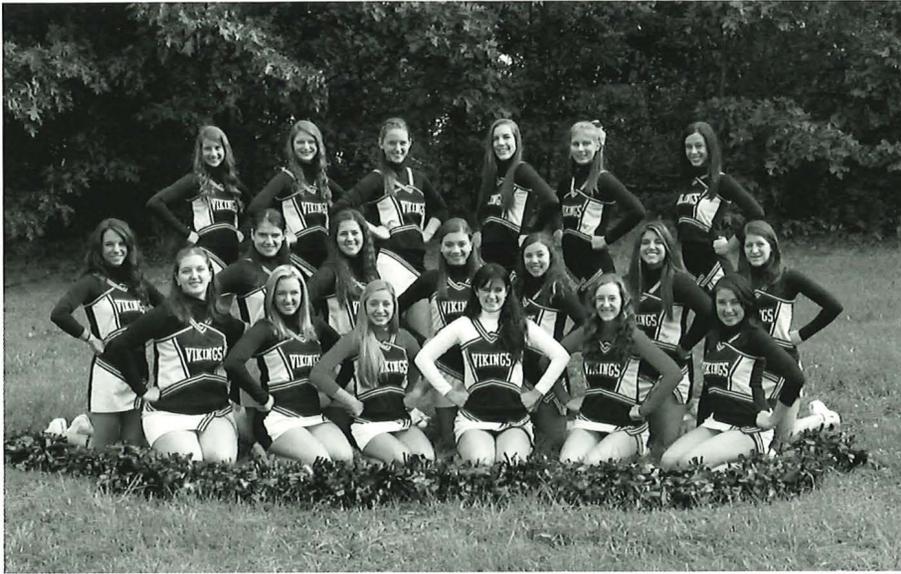

Band

The marching band season was short but sweet, though we had a rough start. Many newcomers joined, which was a bit overwhelming, but with hard work and perseverance, we were able to pull through and perform one of the best field shows yet. Overall, the season was filled with enjoyable opportunities to meet other musicians, view their field shows, and experience crazy bus rides.

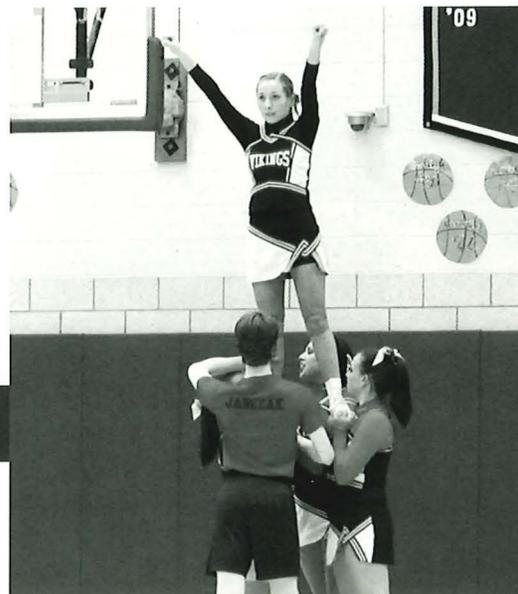

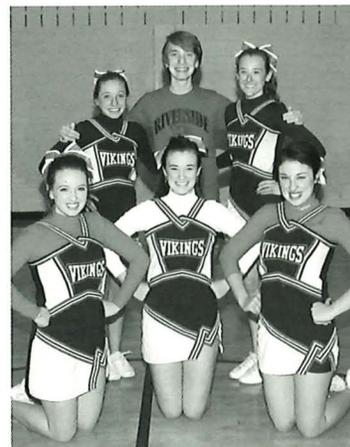

This year the band received plenty of compliments which improved our confidence. Everybody worked as hard as they could and it paid off. Whatever the weather was, everyone endured and each show was better than the last. By the end of the season, it was freezing cold, a stark contrast to the warm nights of September. Although everyone was frozen down to their toes, no one wanted the season to end. We were a big dysfunctional family and will always remember the good times and be there for each other.

Cheerleaders

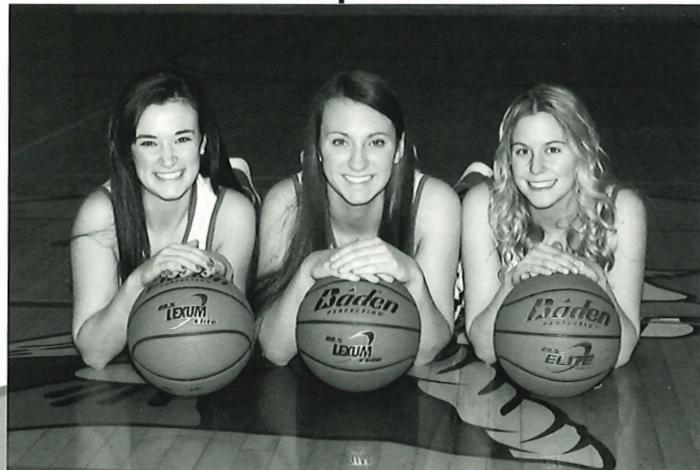

Girls' Basketball

First row: Ashlyn Kilvitis, Candice Haas, Kelsey Janesko, Bryanna Burnside, Kim Keller, Kayleigh Kempa, and Lauren Gryzboski.
Second Row: Mr. James Rupp, Briana Gallagher, McKenzie Haduck, Madison Haduck, Jenelle Richards, Ashley Buffton, Danielle Powell, Taylor Tilberry, and Mr. Jack Mekilo.

Captains

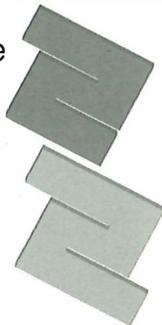

Kelsey Janesko, Bryanna Burnside, and Kim Keller

Don't mess with our Lady Vikes!

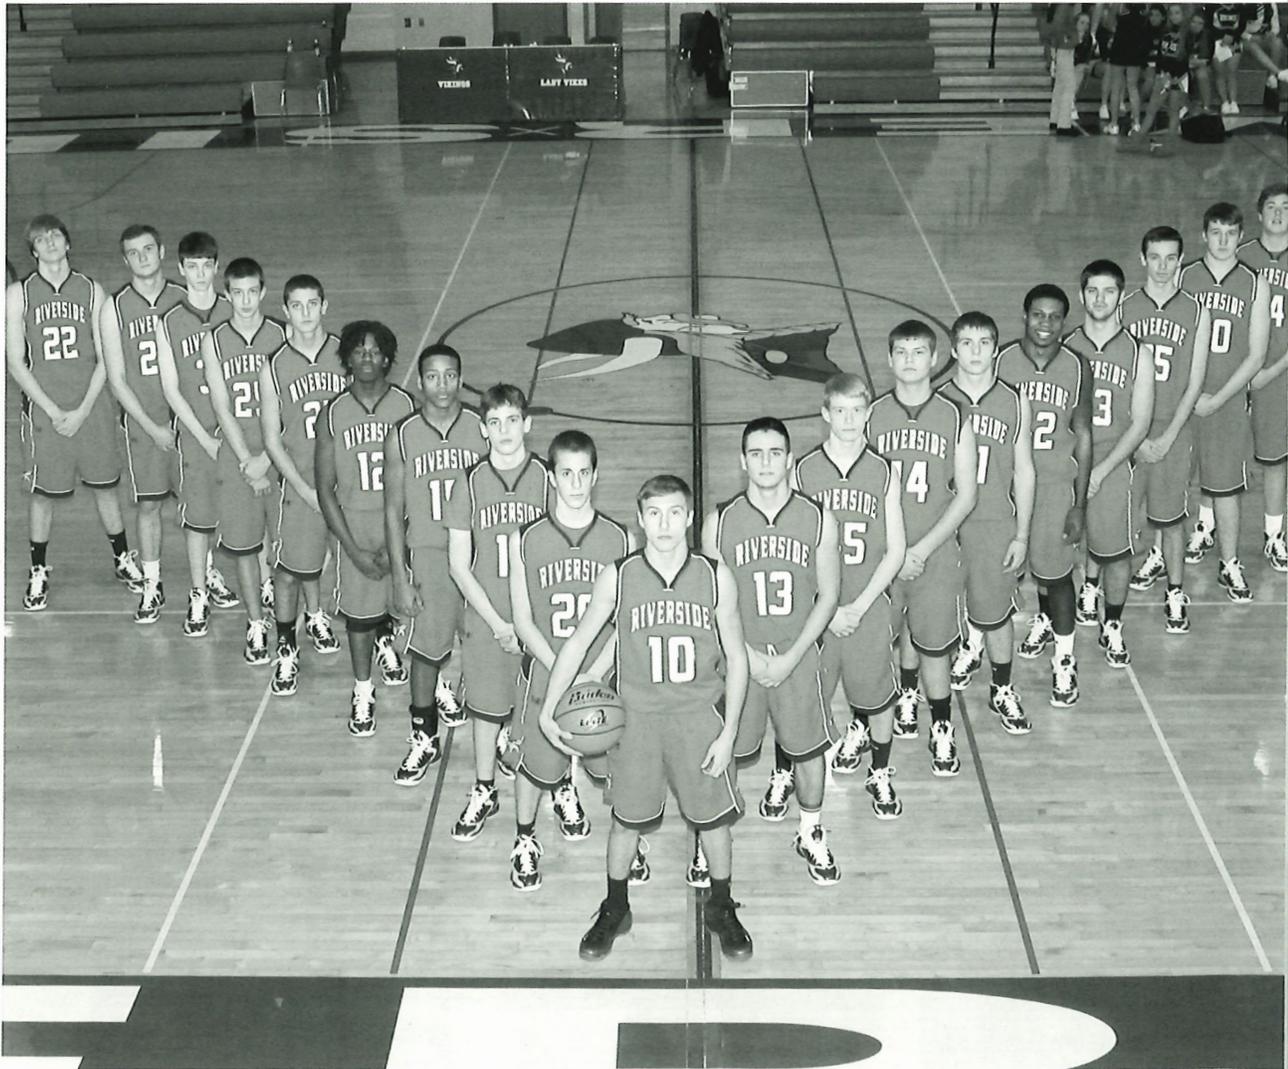

The Lady Vikes had much success throughout the season and finished with a 14-10 record. After a slightly disappointing first half, the girls came back strong in the second half and went on a winning streak. During the last game of the season, the Lady Vikes upset the Lady Crusaders in an overtime victory; this gave them momentum which led to an impressive performance in the playoffs. Although the Lady Vikes will be losing the talents of seniors Kelsey Janesko, Bryanna Burnside, and Kim Keller, they will undoubtedly continue to "control the court" for years to come.

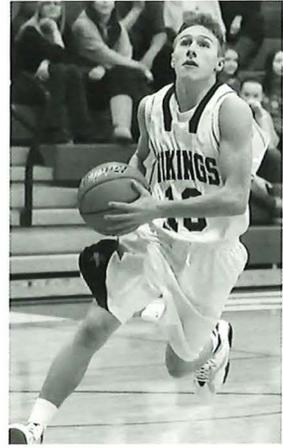

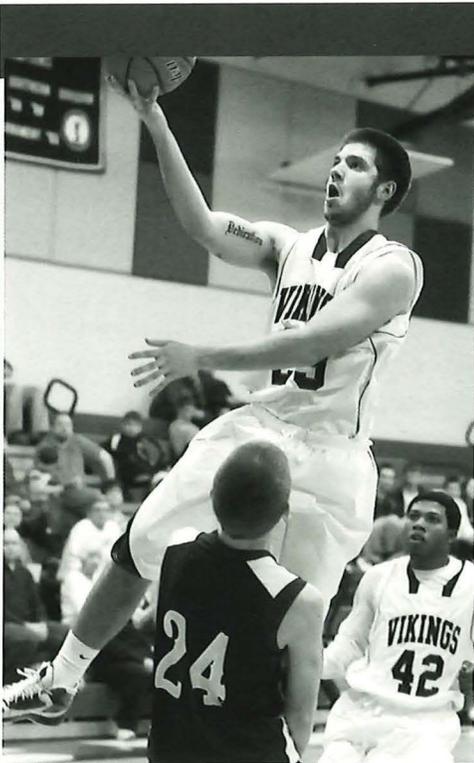

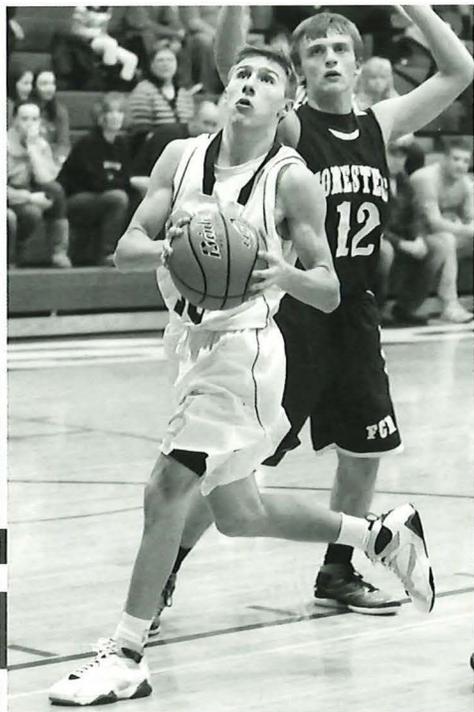

Boys' Basketball

The Vikings boys' basketball team finished 15-8 under new head coach, Andrew Bennie. The Vikings were led by senior captain Jaron "Dushk" Vishnesky who was named a Lackawanna League All-Star. They also got help from seniors Mat Donahue and Nicholas Dranchak as well as juniors Nico Munley, Connor Mailen and sophomore Randy Kincl.

2012-2013 Basketball Team

Baseball

2012-2013 Baseball Team

This year Alec Parchinski was the lone senior on the baseball team. The team was lead by head coach Dan Digwood and assistant coach Justin Lacomis.

Softball

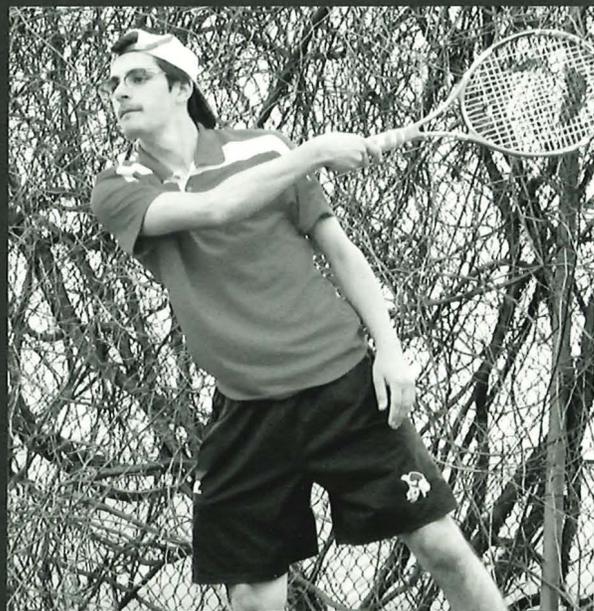

2012-2013 Softball Team

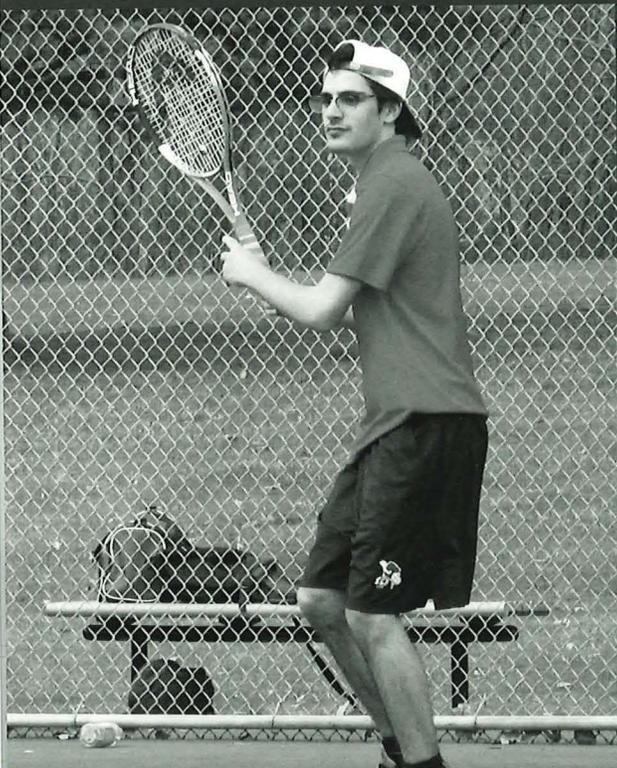

The Lady Vikes Softball team had a successful season and finished second in the league. With Mr. Fox's dedication as a coach, the whole team showed improvements by nearly tripling their wins. In the upcoming year, the team is expected to do even better. Overall, the team certainly came together and became like a family.

2012-2013 Boys' Tennis Team

Boys' Tennis

The boys' tennis team worked hard this season under the leadership of Coach Thomas. They gave their all in every practice and match while making memories in the process.

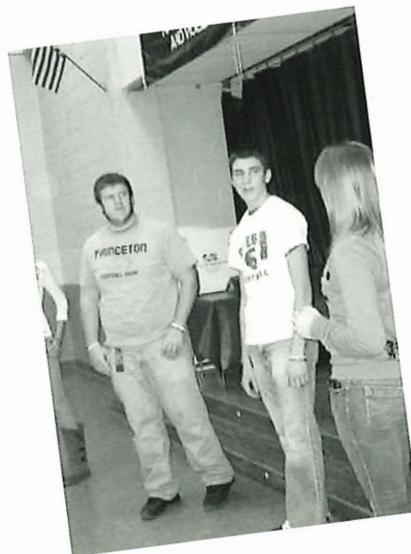

Track

Both the boys' and girls' track teams worked hard this season. They gave it their all and some events made it to states making it to states.

Celebration of the Season

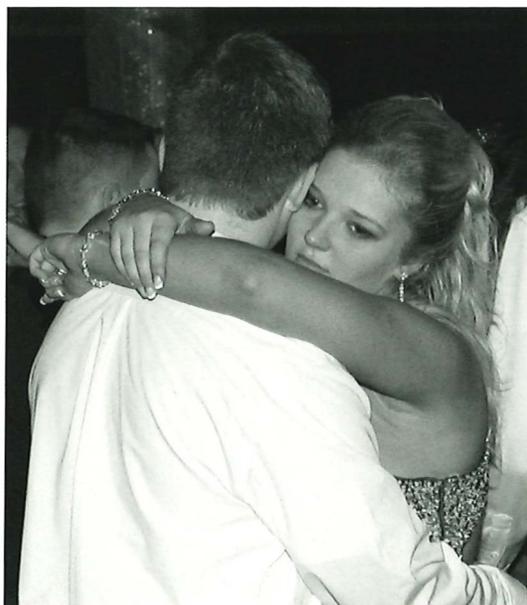

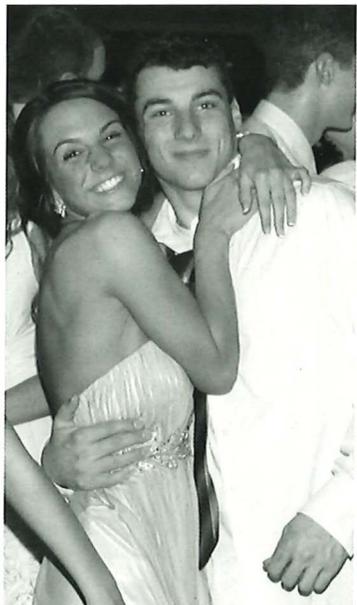

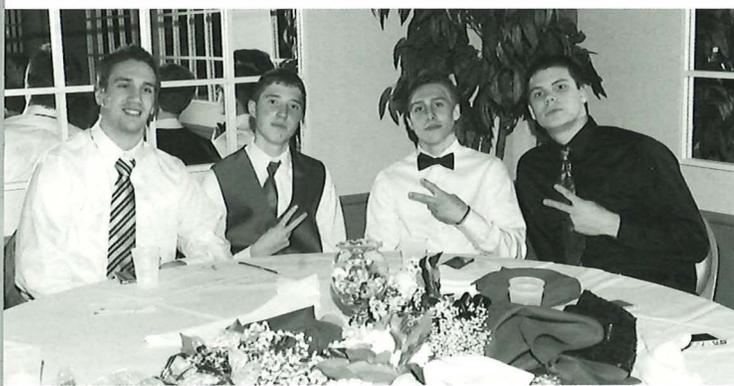

Semi

Via Appia was the setting for the annual semi-formal held on January 12, and hosted by the Riverside Marching Units.

Students in grades nine through twelve enjoyed an evening of fine food and dancing. The dance floor was always filled with students getting their groove on to music provided by EJ the DJ.

Unit Show

The Riverside Marching Units hosted their annual Unit Show on February 17. This year's theme was Party In The USA. Dances were choreographed by the senior cheerleaders and performed by members of all three squads. The evening also included a solo performance by Miss Viking, Kelsey Janesko.

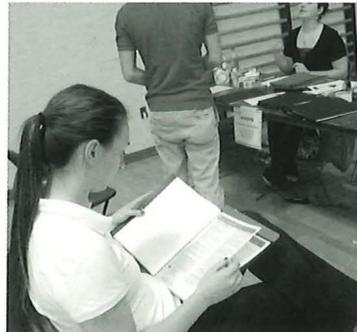

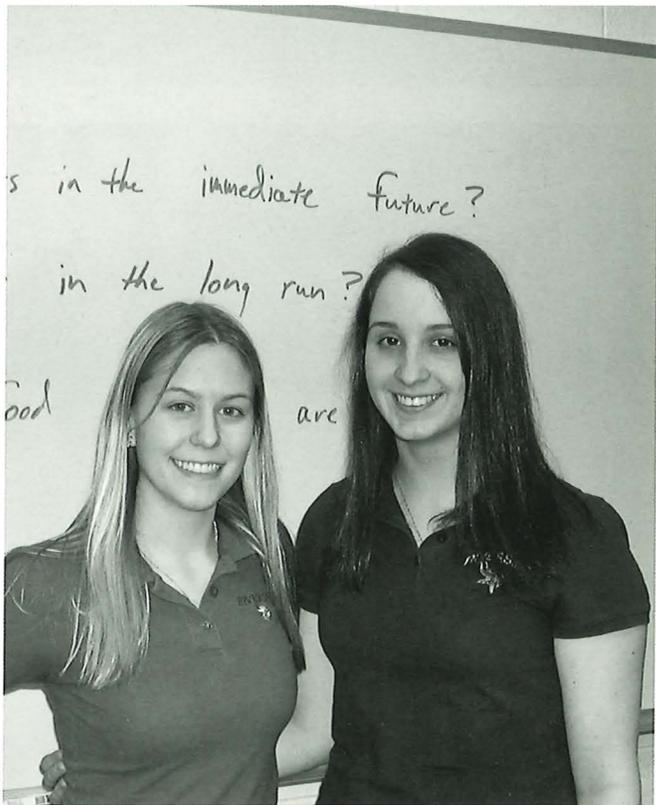

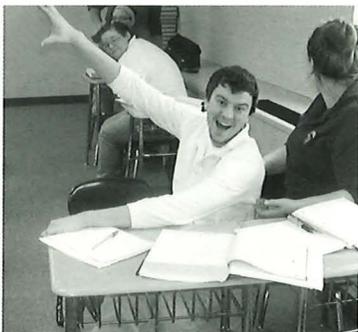

Party In The U.S.A.

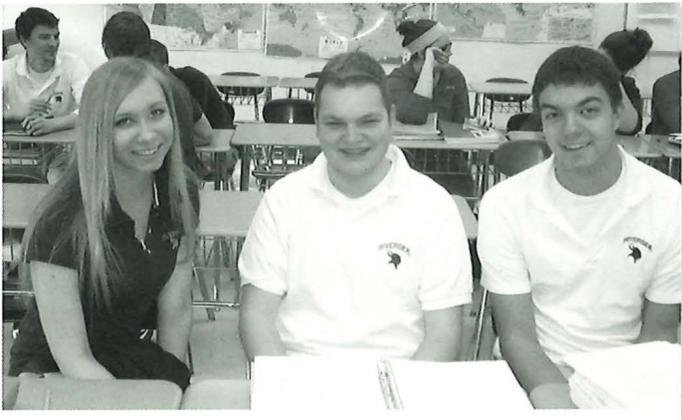

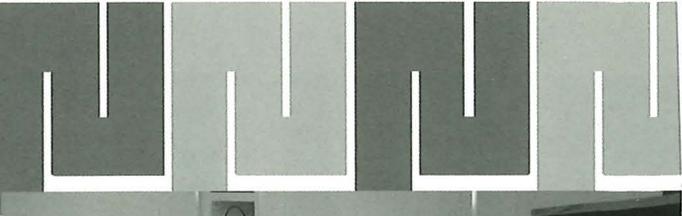

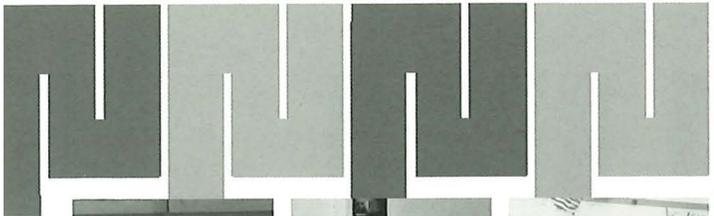

Blood Drive

This year Riverside hosted two blood drives. The first drive was held on Halloween and 88 units of blood were donated. The second drive was held on March 18, 2013 and saved 231 lives! Once again Riverside faculty and students showed how caring they can be.

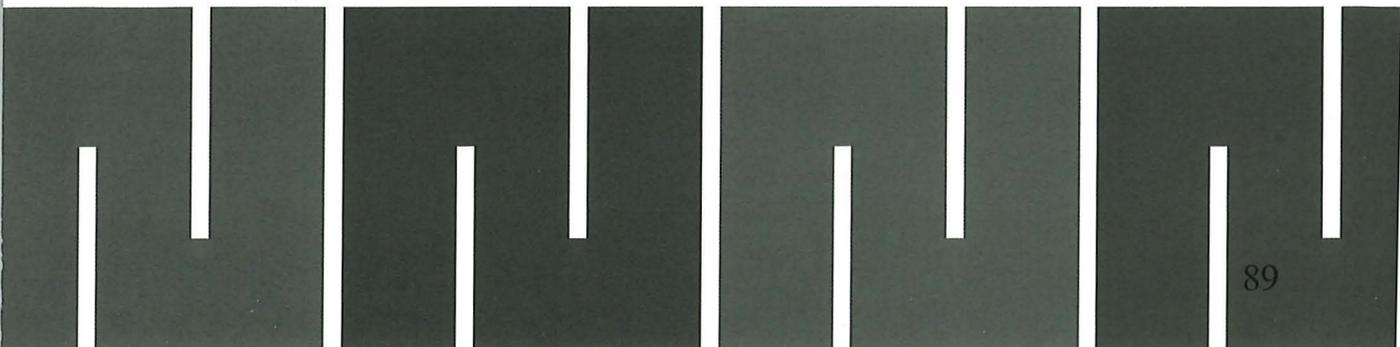

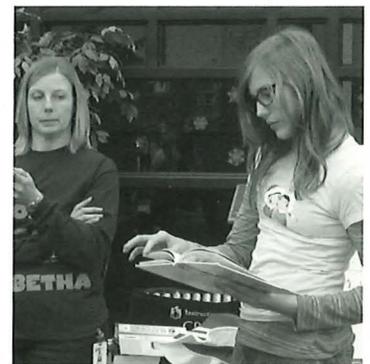

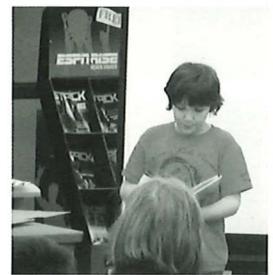

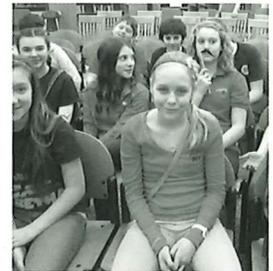

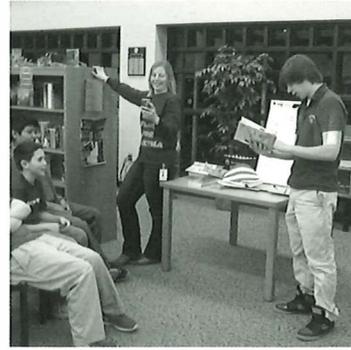

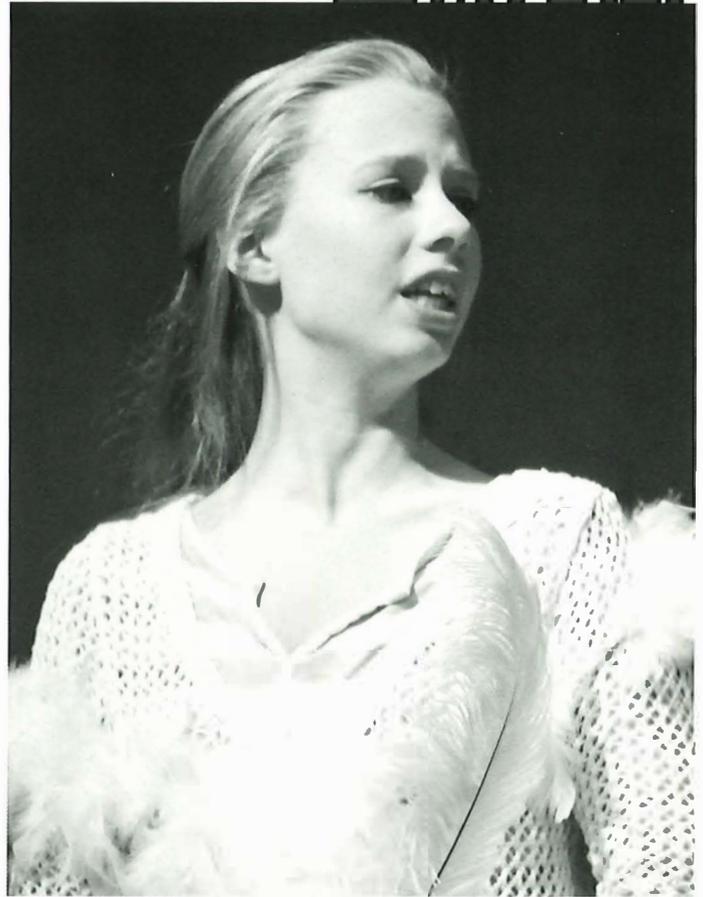

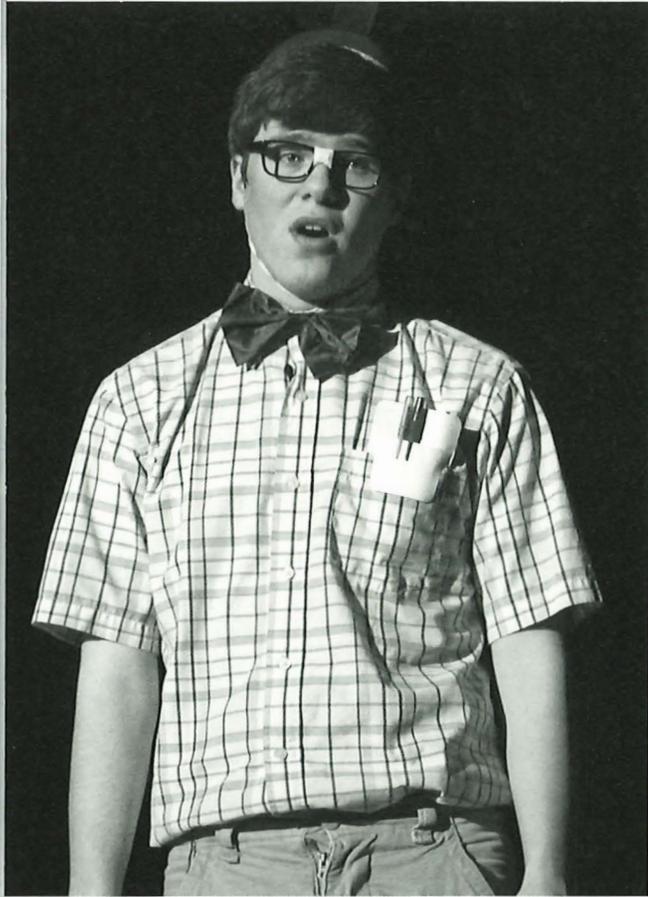

Read Across America

Riverside celebrates Dr. Seuss' birthday every March with various Read Across America festivities. Homerooms can take part in door decorating and students are invited to come to the library to listen to stories read by teachers. Other opportunities include a speed reading competition and chance to meet with an author.

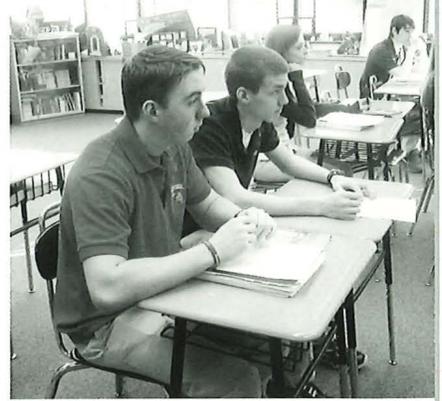

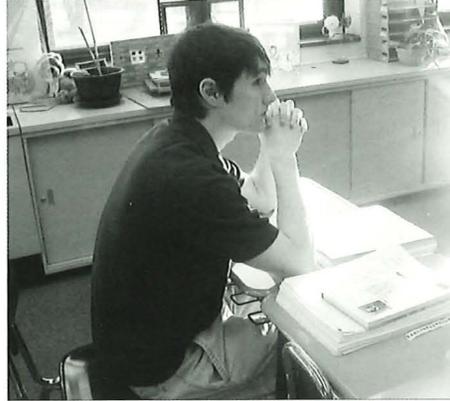

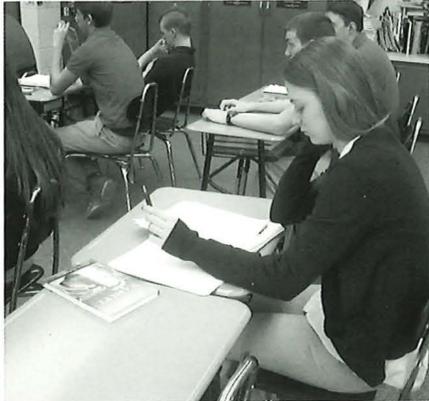

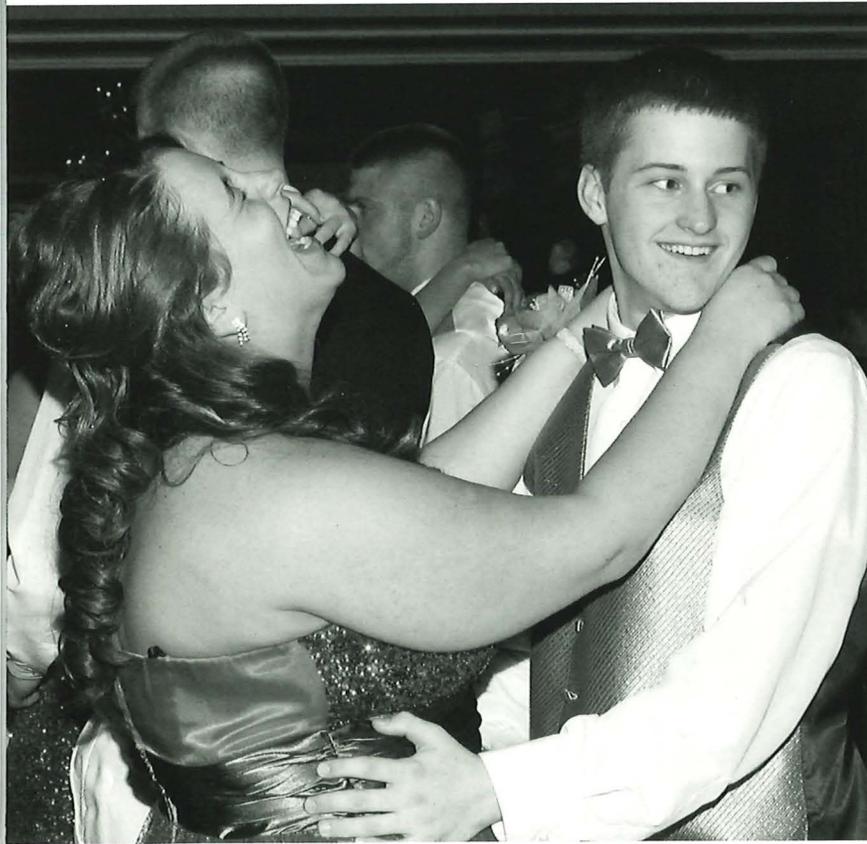

Honk

Honk!, a musical comedy, was presented by the Drama Club this year from March 15-17. An ugly duckling, Peter Miles, tries to fit in with his family and the other members of the duck yard and finds out it's not so bad to be different. This inspirational story provided lots of laughs, tears and tons of honking! Once again, the Drama Club gave us a magical performance! Congratulations to the seniors, Tera Sheerin, Mrs. McDermott, Mr. Geise, Mr. Reifler, and everyone else who was involved. Keep calm and Honk!

Senior Picnic

The unexpected weather for the May 24 picnic may have moved the event to the cafeteria, but it didn't dampen any spirits. FACS students along with the "Grill Master" Mr. Pabst put on a spectacular event.

Riverside Alive

-Nazia Nowshin

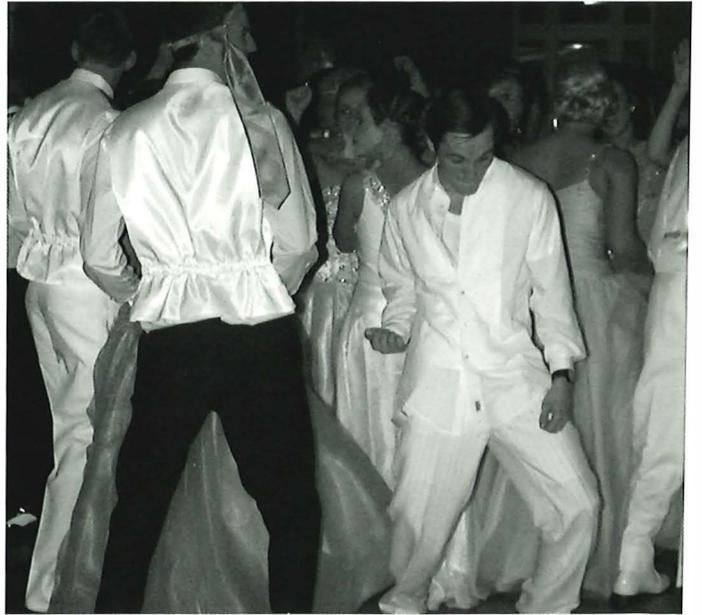

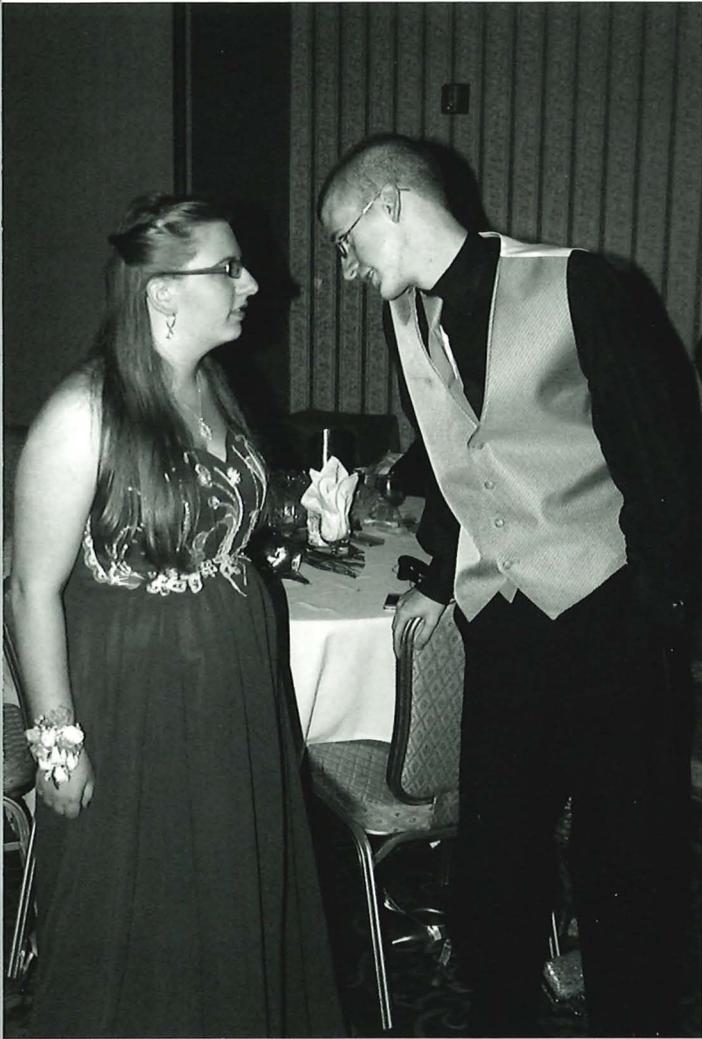

I enjoyed the Raku done by Mr. Yanashot and several art students.
-Yacouba Sidibe

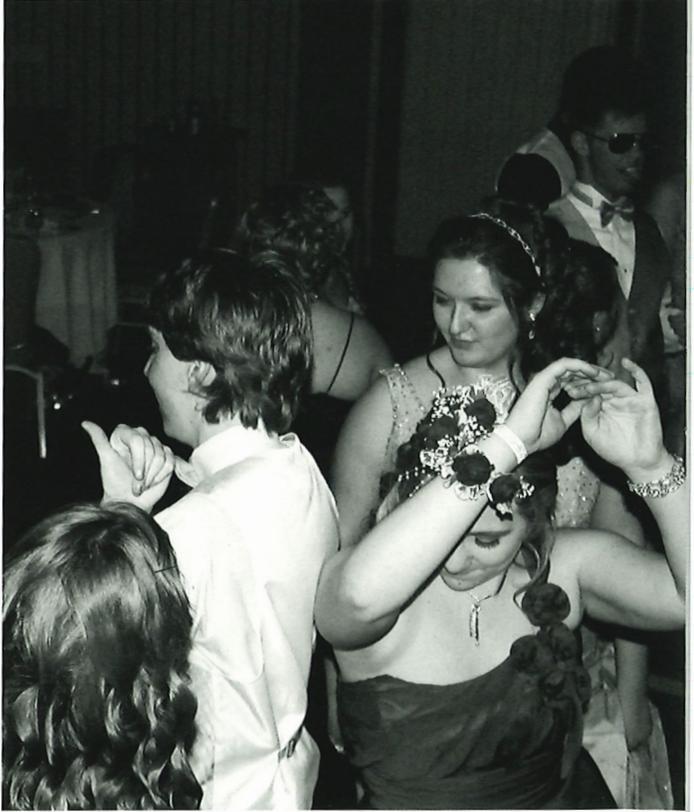

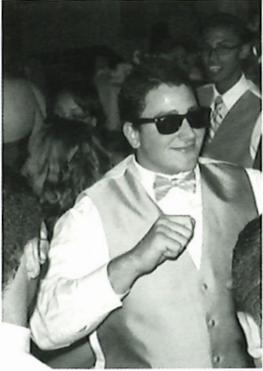

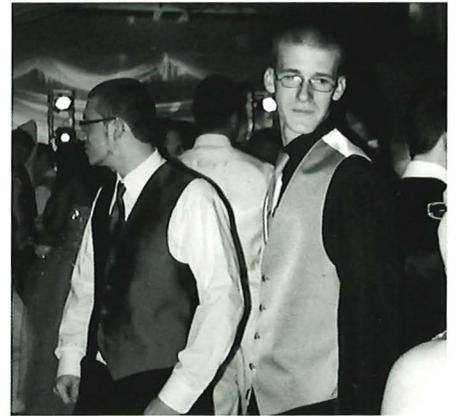

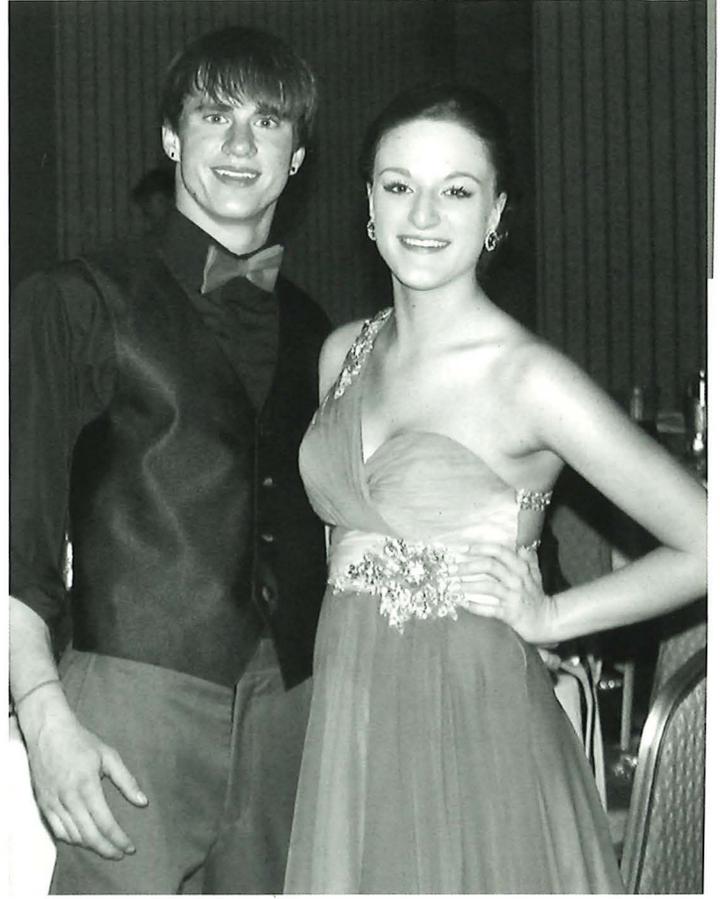

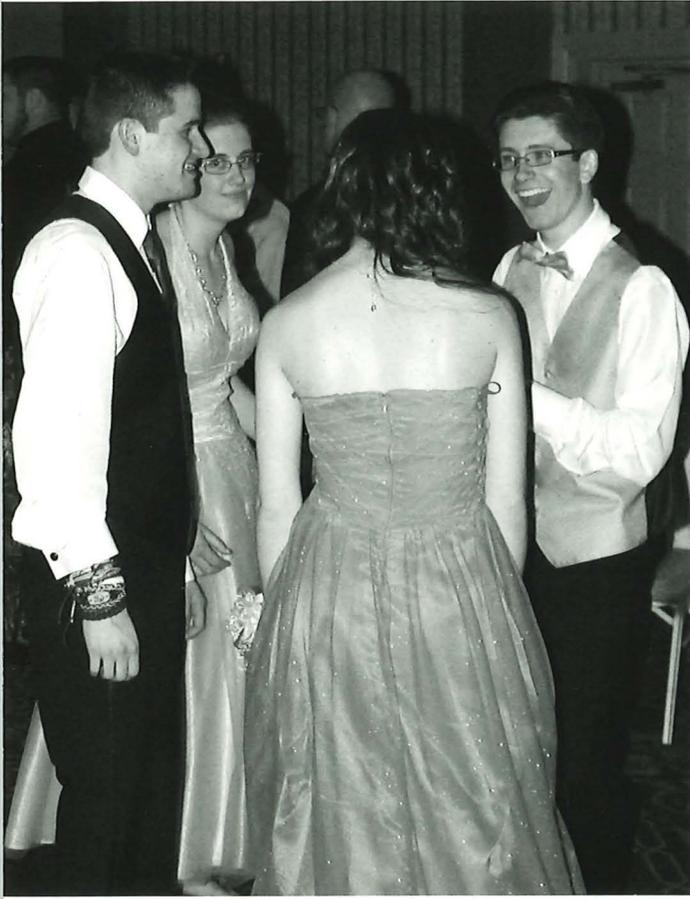

Prom

The theme of this year's prom, which was held at the Radisson Hotel in Scranton, was Masquerade. The night was filled with plenty of dancing and good times. Mark Donaghey was chosen as Prom King and Kayla Laferriere was Prom Queen. Junior Tabetha Saylok was chosen as this year's Prom Princess.

Class Day

Class History

The year is 2035. Laura Fetch is eating at Dino & Francesco's in Moosic when Deanna Wesley walks in. They decide to sit together and catch up with each other.

D: Hey, do you still work here?

L: Not anymore...it sure brings back memories though!

D: Do you remember coming here after every Friday night football game?

L: Oh yeah, way back when Jimmy Tucker and Mark Donaghey played!

D: Were you ever mentioned in Yacouba Sidibe's Friday shoutouts?

L: Once or twice! But they weren't as good as Ryan Abbott's movie reviews.

D: Didn't Jenna Bauman date Ryan Abbott?

L: No one knew for sure!

D: Remember all the class couples in high school?

L: Yeah, like Kaelyn Besecker and Ryan Manzo!

D: They were always on again off again. I wonder if Nick Dranchak and Lexi Scott are still together...

L: No, I heard he's dating Kris Cooper now!

D: How about all those couples in elementary school?

L: Kim Keller and Dallas Pinnell were the cutest couple in first grade!

D: Not as cute as Mike Loftus and Autumn Resautit though!

L: I think Elysia Heil and Nick Strenkoski dated too...

D: Not gonna lie, I thought they were going to get married someday.

L: I guess those relationships just never worked out....Do you remember David Torrissi?

D: Didn't he dress up as Buzz Lightyear for hall decorating?

L: Yeah! Our hall finally won too!

D: Remember how Jimmy Segilia was class president every year?

L: Yeah, that really started to get old. Remember when we got a celebrity student?

D: Oh yeah, Selena Gomez turned out to be Selena Gonzalez!

L: Everyone thought Matt Derenick was Drake Bell for a while too...

D: Remember when he and Sam Destefano were friends?

L: Yeah, that was back when Sam's arms were actually normal size!

D: Do you remember Caity Pucilowski's love of horses?

L: Yeah, I wonder how she's doing! Hey, did Ross Haberek ever graduate from sophomore year?

D: I'm not sure...Do you still remember how everyone looked back then?

L: Yeah, it's kind of hard to forget Tyler Yarborough's faux-hawk.

D: Not to mention Kevin Jones's rattail and Tucker's frosted tips!

L: Remember John Bannon's mustache tattoo?

D: Yeah! How about Joey Belveduto's tattoo of a dreamcatcher?

L: Yes! Remember when Glenn Burge thought he was 50 cent?

D: Oh yeah! Shawn Soroka thought he was a rapper too.

L: What about Carl Pugliese and Jaron Vishnesky in Boogie Bunch?

D: I'm not surprised their rapping careers didn't take off! Nicki "Minaz" had a better shot than they did.

L: Do you remember Kaydee Kish, Mike Killino, or Nick Killino?

D: Not really.

L: Me neither!

D: Do you remember Mrs. Corey's awesome Christmas party?

L: Of course! Mrs. Corey, Mat Donahue, and Dave Sweetman all danced to Bon Jovi together!

D: Remember Kristy Keller's art skills?

L: Yeah, she's the reason our homeroom won door decorating! Remember when Sam Lomeo was crowned homecoming king?

D: He was the nicest! Remember when Valeriya Kazysta walked right out of Mr. Pabst's class?

L: I've never seen her so mad! How about when Aaron Janczak became Riverside's first male cheerleader?

D: Yeah, his splits were better than most girls! Remember when Jess Klocek and I passed out after the blood drive?

L: Yeah, that was scary! Do you remember the gym class volleyball tournament?

D: Ariel Nelson and Sam Clark were the true stars of their team!

L: Do you remember when everyone knew Kelsey Janesko, Breanna Connell, Kaelyn Besecker, and I as "the fab 4"?

D: Oh yeah! Hannah Oustrich and Lexi Scott were "the daring duo".

L: Remember Johnny Segilia's obsession with America?

D: He loved it just as much as Alec Parchinski loved radishes!

L: Remember when Bry Burnside fell at the Jordan relays?

D: Bry, Sam Keonela, and Aubrey Edstrom were such track stars! Didn't Carly Seidel fall on her face when she tried to hurdle?

L: Hah, she did! Remember when Dustin Colarusso would pull up to school in a monster truck?

D: Yeah, and Michael Blakely would drive his motorcycle!

L: And we could only tell the O'Malleys apart by "D for dirtbike"?

D: Yes, but they still get mixed up! How about Corey Smigiel's third eyebrow?

L: The soccer stitches, right? And Eric Vanhoof broke both of his arms falling off the swings.

D: I still don't know how he did that. Didn't Vinnie Sacchetti die once?

L: I think so. It must've been when he drank the gas.

D: Hey, have you seen Kayla Siminski, Ryan Orzel, or Tyler Morgan since graduation?

L: No, but I bet they haven't grown since seventh grade anyway. Do you remember prom night?

D: Obviously! No one could forget James Colondres break dancing for the Radisson's waiters.

L: Or when Kayla Laferriere won prom queen!

D: Kayla Creedon dated that Sean Ritter guy, right?

L: Oh God, she did. He looked like a young Jeffrey Dahmer!

D: Did we ever hear Fatima Bonilla, Steph Evans, Kaitlyn Kielar, or Alicia Sophabmixay speak?

L: No. Even the teachers were surprised when they'd talk.

D: I wonder if Anna and Brittany are still friends?

L: That depends. Are you talking about Brittney Natale or Brittany Gordon?

D: Remember Crystal Phillips? Her laugh was contagious!

L: How about Gabby Furman's laugh?

D: People were looking for the dolphin set loose in the halls!

L: Do you remember Jen Togher's love of nature?

D: Everyone called her nature girl! Remember Sam Wesnak and Kristina Maxfield?

L: Yeah, I wonder if they achieved their lifelong dream of being the crazy cat ladies.

D: Do you remember when Ed Martz was the priest at the mock wedding?

L: Yeah, I wonder if he ever joined the Monastery...

D: Well, it's been real fun catching up, but I should get going. Let's meet up again soon!

L: Sounds like a plan...See you later!

Prophecy

Sam is waiting for her client at the gym she works for when she sees Elysia walk in...

S: Omg, Elysia Heil, is that you?

E: Sam Keonela, I haven't seen you since we graduated! What have you been up to?

S: Well I work here at the gym as a physical therapist. Actually, Alec Parchinski used to own this place, but now he owns the McDonald's down the street. Nick Dranchak is my newest client since he torn his ACL in his first pro football game with the Steelers.

E: Are he and Lexi Scott still together?

S: Yeah, they're married and have kids now.

E: Wow, good for them.

S: So what have you been up to?

E: Well after college I started my own engineering company, so that has been keeping me busy. But I decided I needed to start coming back to the gym to stay in shape. I heard Dave Sweetman and Jimmy Tucker were training here?

S: Yeah, they're both training for the 2020 Olympics.

E: I always figured they'd go pretty far. Hey, did you see Eric Van Hoof in the paper the other day? He's part of the engineering crew for the Transatlantic Bridge they want to make.

S: Yeah I saw that, but what ever happened to Ryan E. O'Malley? Weren't they like best friends?

E: The last I heard he was working for Apple and he's rumored to be the next Steve Jobs.

S: Wow he's pretty high up there.

E: Yeah, Mike Blakely has been making millions redesigning Apple's website. I'm pretty sure he and Joey Belveduto are still good friends too.

S: I saw him on TV the other night; he was in a UFC fight and knocked his opponent out within the first thirty seconds.

E: That's crazy. I know Matt Kolveck just came home from his tour of duty overseas.

S: Speaking of tours, Aubrey Edstrom is touring the country with her favorite bands. And Kayla Creedon and Val Kazysta are part of the sold out orchestra that's coming to town.

E: I just went to a concert the other day where Kaelyn Besecker opened for the next new rapper, Minaz (A.K.A. Nazia Nowshin). I'm pretty sure James Colondres was a backup dancer for her too.

S: While we're talking about rappers, I saw Sam Wesnak wrapping Christmas gifts at the mall a few months back.

E: Did you hear Kristy Keller's opening an art gallery a few blocks from the mall? She's going to feature art from Hannah Oustrich, Autumn Resaut, and Carly Seidel.

S: Yeah I heard about that, it is right next to Selena Gonzalez's hair salon.

E: Remember all the kids that went to vo-tech?

S: Yeah, there was Fatima Bonilla, Dereissi Carrasquillo, Dustin Colarusso, Brayant Guevara, Kevin Jones, Heather Mills, Tara Muha, Ariel Nelson, Mike Piasecki, Vinny Sacchetti, Laura Shoemaker, and Ashley Sweetman.

E: They're all doing so much better than we are. We should have listened to Mr. Kennedy when he told us that the way to go was with the trades. It would have saved us a lot of money.

S: I saw Sam Lomeo on the news the other day, he won the lottery. He got about $40 million after taxes.

E: Good for him, he deserves it.

S: Yeah really. Do you know what ever happened to Ross Haberek?

E: Well, I saw a new business in the shopping plaza that is only opened on Fridays and the sign on the front door says Free Hugs, so if I was to take a guess, I'd say that's where he is.

S: Was it next to a nail salon? Because Alicia Sophabmixay has a nail salon there and she said some weird business just moved in next to her.

E: Yeah it was, but that's Ross for you. Wait, did you ever go there and see who walks around there?

S: No, why, who's there?

E: It's John Bannon, he walks around trying to convince someone to lend him some money so he can produce his "crustless poptarts" that he's been trying to make since high school.

S: That's too funny. Did you see Ryan Orzel is now the CEO of Bed Head hair products?

E: No, but did you see Bry Burnside lately? She used to have such really long hair and she cut it all off so her hair is super short now. I could barely even recognize her.

S: I know she was thinking about it, but I never knew if she went through with it. But did you see who has taken over for Roger Ebert doing movie reviews? It's Ryan Abbott and he has some pretty awesome reviews of all the newest movies.

E: I saw that. His newest review was on that party movie that starred Kristina Maxfield as the lead actress, Ryan D. O'Malley was the stunt man, Aaron Janczak was in charge of costumes, and Ryan Manzo was supposed to be the lead actor until he broke his leg so they had to give the part to Dallas Pinnell.

S: Oh I saw that preview; it came on while I was watching the MBA draft. Jaron Vishnesky got picked in the top 10 and is now on the roster for the Lakers.

E: I didn't know he was still playing basketball. I did read in the paper though that Carl Pugliese is currently playing in the PGA Tour. And Mark Donaghey made the front page for the Strong Man Competition that's coming up; he's expected to win this year.

S: Remember Kaydee Kish? I was flipping through channels a while back looking for something to watch and I saw her name on the leader board for a snowboarding competition. So I left it on to see and as they introduced her, they read off a long list of injuries she has sustained over the past few years.

E: That's too bad.

S: Yeah, they all know her pretty well over at the hospital where Kelsey Janesko works apparently.

E: I heard she worked there, Brittany Gordon recently went to her and told me if I ever need to go to the hospital then Kelsey's the person I need to see right away.

S: I saw on Facebook the other day that Caity Pucilowski recently had heart surgery done by Yacouba Sidibe. She had a heart attack because she got into a heated argument with one of her co-workers.

E: Sounds just like high school. I didn't know Corey Smigiel was back in the area, I heard him and Yacouba work together at the hospital and Crystal Phillips is his nurse.

S: Yeah they stayed friends after we graduated and now they work together like we all figured they would.

E: You know who are still best friends after all this time?

S: Who?

E: Stephanie Evans, Kaitlyn Kielar, and Jenna Bauman. I just saw them having lunch the other day.

S: That's funny; I just saw Jess Klocek, Kim Keller, Kayla Siminski, and Jen Togher shopping earlier.

E: Speaking of shopping, I hear Shawn Soroka owns a thrift shop.

S: He does. It's so ironic because he looks just like Macklemore.

E: Tyler Yarborough told me that once. I saw he has his own dentist office now on the other side of town.

S: Are he and Nick Strenkoski still friends?

E: Yeah, I saw them in the park the other day running and holding hands. It reminded me of when they got disqualified at the one track meet for doing that.

S: While we're on the subject of running, guess who just posted they're running for Mayor?

E: Who?

S: Jimmy Segilia. Johnny Segilia and Dave Torrisi are helping him with his campaign.

E: I always knew he'd run one day.

S: I know kids went running last night from the house next door to me after Matt Derenick showed up for a noise complaint.

E: Don't Mat Donahue and Mike Loftus live next door to you?

S: Yeah, they decided to throw a party last, but that came to an end real quick.

E: Speaking of parties, whatever happened to Nick and Mike Killino?

S: I don't know, the last time I saw them was at the convenient store with Jimmy Odzana, but no one has heard anything from them since.

E: I thought I saw one of them the other day at Deanna Wesley's book store, but it wasn't him. Though I did run into Robyn Cooke and she has some sick glasses now. And I saw Ed Martz driving the other day with a really nice pair of aviators on. I was pretty jealous.

S: I went to the aquarium the other day and I took mine off to swim with the dolphins and I ended up dropping them and they broke. Did you know Gabby Furman works there?

E: No, I was never in there.

S: Well yeah, she's the new dolphin instructor. When I was leaving I saw Kayla Laferriere and Brittney Natale getting ready for their turn with the dolphins.

E: I didn't know they were still friends too.

S: So where had Glenn Burge been?

E: I'm pretty sure he's a sports announcer at the stadium Tyler Morgan built last year.

S: I don't even remember him talking at all in school.

E: Yeah, he's doing pretty well now. Oh yeah, I saw Breanna Connell and Laura Fetch at Starbucks yesterday morning. They said Sam DeStefano is taking anger management classes now.

S: Wow, he hasn't changed much since we were all in AP Lit together.

E: Yeah, he had some pretty crazy stories.

S: Are you going to Anna Davis and Sam Clark's cooking class? They posted flyers for it over at Kris Cooper's Walmart.

E: I'll have to look into it and let you know.

S: Well you should definitely go if you can, we could catch up some more.

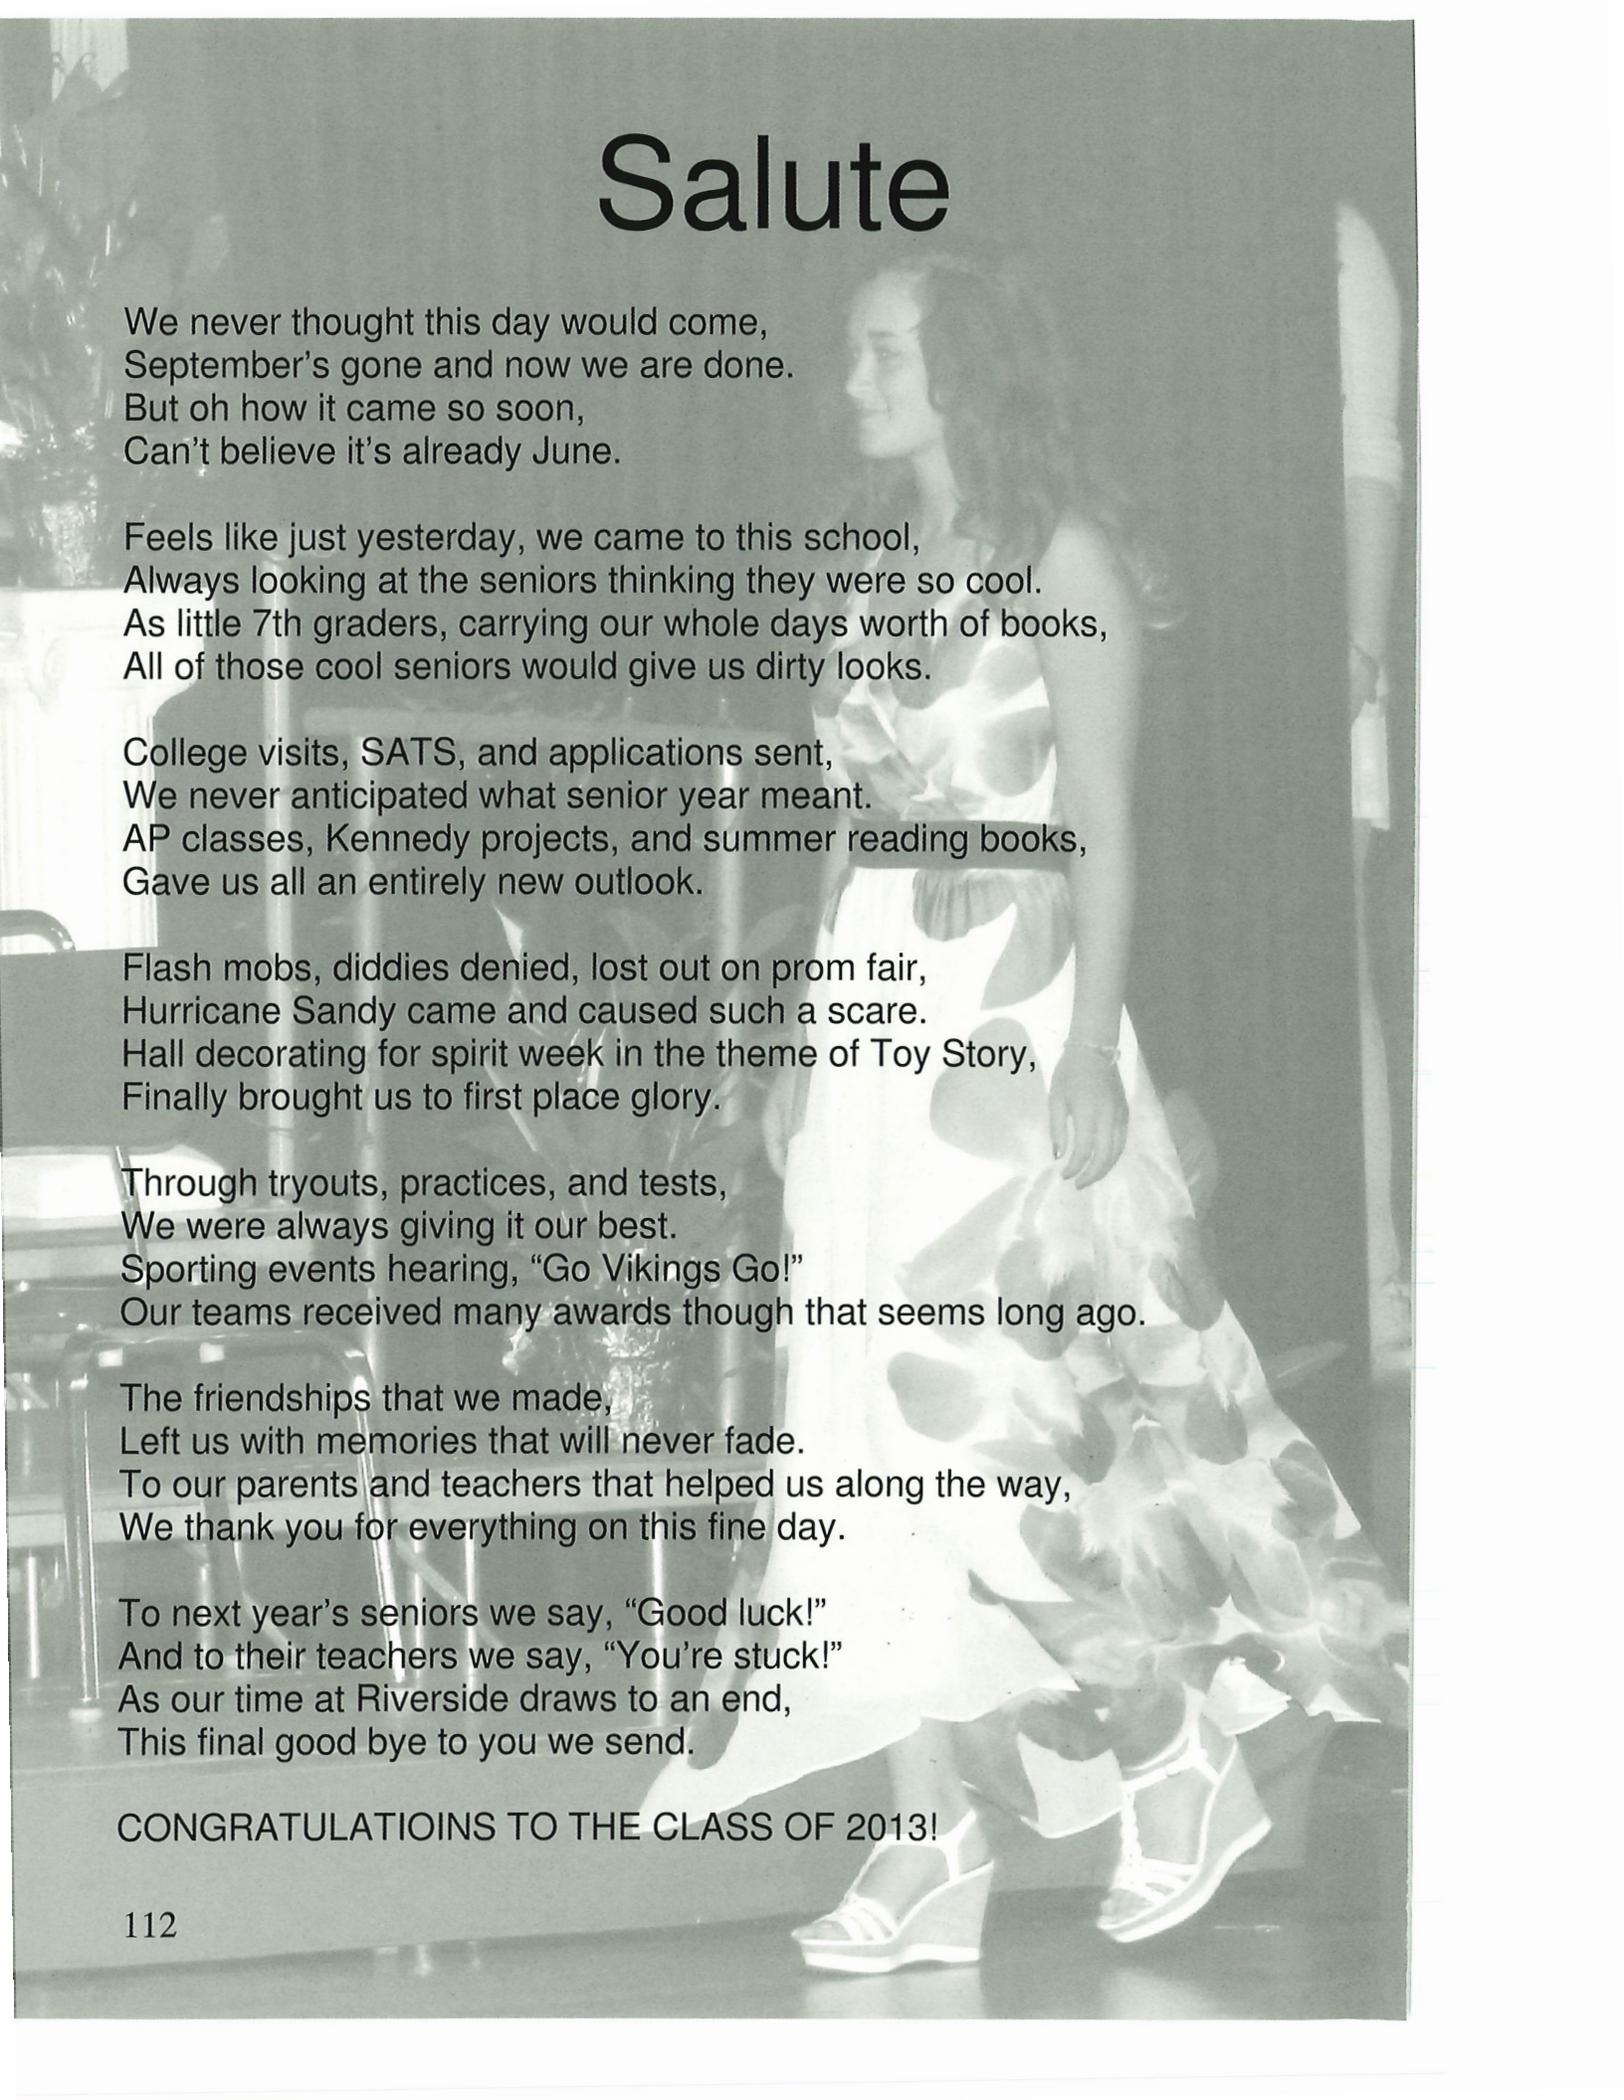

E: Okay I'll give you a call tomorrow.

S: Sounds good.

E: Okay well see you around.

S: Bye.

Salute

We never thought this day would come,
September's gone and now we are done.
But oh how it came so soon,
Can't believe it's already June.

Feels like just yesterday, we came to this school,
Always looking at the seniors thinking they were so cool.
As little 7th graders, carrying our whole days worth of books,
All of those cool seniors would give us dirty looks.

College visits, SATS, and applications sent,
We never anticipated what senior year meant.
AP classes, Kennedy projects, and summer reading books,
Gave us all an entirely new outlook.

Flash mobs, diddies denied, lost out on prom fair,
Hurricane Sandy came and caused such a scare.
Hall decorating for spirit week in the theme of Toy Story,
Finally brought us to first place glory.

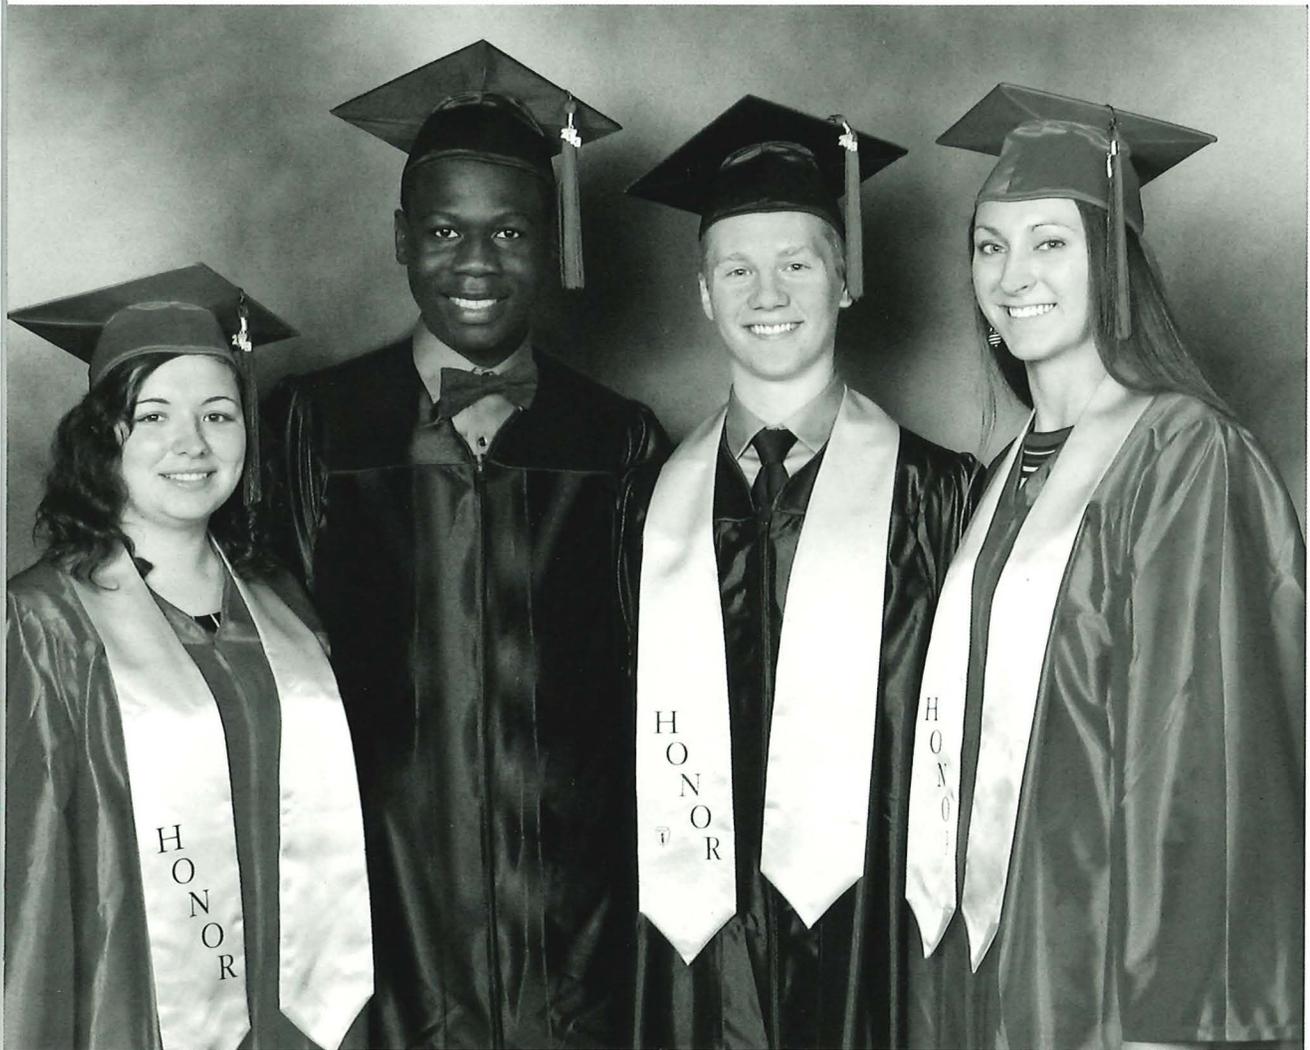

Through tryouts, practices, and tests,
We were always giving it our best.
Sporting events hearing, "Go Vikings Go!"
Our teams received many awards though that seems long ago.

The friendships that we made,
Left us with memories that will never fade.
To our parents and teachers that helped us along the way,
We thank you for everything on this fine day.

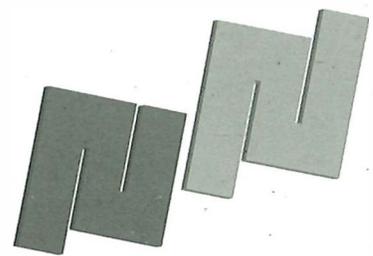

To next year's seniors we say, "Good luck!"
And to their teachers we say, "You're stuck!"
As our time at Riverside draws to an end,
This final good bye to you we send.
