Mr. Bernie Lazevnick has taught at Riverside for the past 29 years. He taught classes such as biology and science throughout his years at Riverside. Mr. Lazevnick, or as his students affectionately called him, B.L., has been the Athletic Director for the past 23 years. He also coached football for some time. He will be sorely missed by the students, sports players, coaches, and faculty here at Riverside. We'll miss you, B.L.

Coach Morgan Jones has been coaching baseball at Riverside for the past ten years. He first served as a Junior Varsity Baseball coach for six years, and for the last four years has been the Varsity Baseball team's coach. This year, under his leadership, the baseball team made it all the way to the State Semifinals and also brought home the first District Championship. He will be missed greatly.

CLASS HISTORY

Scene: The year is 2012. It's backstage after a sold out performance by the country's hottest singing sensation, Moon Zappa Douglas. Kali Racavich, a crazed fan, finds her way backstage.

B: Security!!!

K: Wait! Don't you remember me? I'm Kali Racavich. We graduated together.

Remember? Riverside? Class of 2000?

B: Kali? Is that you? How'd you get back here? I only give backstage passes to Mike Morgan.

K: Mike Morgan? Hey, didn't you used to idolize him in high school? That was funny.

B: Yeah, real funny. Too bad I didn't. Everyone thought it but me.

K: You mean he wasn't really your idol?

B: No! No way

K: Then why do you only give backstage passes to him?

B: (confused pause) Enough about me. Let's talk about you. Remember in high school when you and Vince Pagnotti "got lost" in the woods?

K: We really were lost! We came home with scratches and bruises and everything!

B: Yeah (sarcastic). Boy those high school years were fun.

K: Remember Melissa's party after class night?

B: Yeah, it seemed like everyone in the entire class was there.

K: Frank Moller practically tore down the entire house trying to keep the fire going.

B: It was fun, until Dersh got everyone caught.

K: Yeah, she did kinda ruin it. That was an interesting week.

B: It certainly was. Like at field day, when Rachael Mallis attacked Joe Aniska for making fun Caitlin.

K: You mean, when Caitlin backed into John Wieckowski's car?

B: Yeah, the one that Mike Basile stole.

K: Isn't funny how the twins always fought with and insulted each other, but when someone else insulted one of them, fists would fly?

B: They were just a tad bit defensive. That week was Aniska's cookie eating contest too.

K: That's right. Rich Noto bet him he couldn't eat 24 cookies in one class period.

B: And he couldn't. He almost made it though. What was his final total? 19?

K: Yeah, and one chewed up and spit out.

B: Wow, a lot of stuff happened our senior year.

K: There was a mock accident the week of our senior prom to warn of the dangers of drinking and driving.

B: That same week was white face day, also to warn about drinking and driving.

K: Nicole Field, Stacey Sharek, Both Twins, and Maria Dante all painted their faces white and pretended to be dead.

B: Wait a minute, Maria didn't paint her face white.

K: She didn't?

B: Nope. Everyone just THOUGHT she did.

K: Oh yeah, she was kind of pale.

B: That's why people called her ghost, among other things.

K: Like beast.

B: Han-Gar

K: Grendel.

B: The list goes on.

K: There were a lot of other nicknames as well.

B: Tom Maines was known as Angus.

K: Ryan Getts was Corky.

B: and Ralph.

K: Billy Koval was Bird.

B: Caitlin and Rachael were the "T-Wins."

K: Eric McGowan was Tweeter, and Joe Reed liked to call himself Tex.

B: Jeff Wincovitch was Wink and (excitedly) Mike Morgan's name was Ball Hog (pause) I think, I don't remember him that well.

K: (sideways glance) Is that right?

B: But anyway . . . no one really knew what to call Mike Grasso

K: Every day his hair would be a different color.

B: We sure had our share of crazy people at Riverside.

K: We had our share of crazy times too.

B: Like, remember that art club field trip our senior year?

K: How could I forget? Didn't have much to do with it though . . .

B: No kidding, we ended up spending our time swimming in the river.

K: And Melissa William's sandal fell off and took a trip down stream.

B: Yeah, and Mike Celuck chased it all the way down the river.

K: Didn't Mr. Kosek catch you in your boxer shorts?

B: Yeah, but Aniska saved the day and distracted him so he could put my pants back on.

K: That was the week of our senior prom.

B: The theme was "Hold on to the Night."

K: Keara Piekanski was Prom Queen and John Wieckowski shared the title of Prom King with someone, but I don't remember who.

B: What do you mean you don't remember who??? He could you not remember who it was??? It was Mike - nevermind, I don't know either.

K: Remember how everyone just hung around crying after the prom? No one would leave.

B: Yeah, they had to practically kick us out.

K: The same thing happened on class night.

B: Yeah, Dershna had just about everyone in tears when she sang after the slide show.

K: There were a lot of surprises that night.

B: Like when Gettsie won just about every award.

K: Or when Rich and Andy got best friends.

B: Well, that wasn't a surprise for everyone . . . just Andy and Rich.

K: Speaking of surprises, remember when Mr. Moe caught Caitlin using the men's bathroom at the Valley View football game.

B: Or when Vince took a rather "risqué" picture while she was changing during the play.

I really don't think she minded.

Our sports teams surprised us as well our senior year.

The golf team won the championship even though Ryan Lindsey broke his wrist.

Our baseball team won our school's first ever District II championship and were undefeated. That was an impressive season.

And equally impressive was Mark Samsels power at the ate.

Although, his running skills were not quite as impressive.

Our basketball team made it all the way to the State Quarter Finals.

And Gary Beck and Mike Morgan each reached the 1000 pint mark

Mike even became Riversides all time leading scorer.

We had our share of girl athletes as well.

Kristen Harris, Maria Dente, and Lindsey Hanna played sketball and Justine was their manager.

Lindsey Griffiths and Shari D'Annunzio both ran track, ndsey ran cross-country and Justin was also on track and old.

Kristin Harris, Jessie Ware and Martina Wheeler played ftball.

Martina proved herself a REAL athlete when she threw a air at Jason Mitchell in the cafeteria.

Jason managed to get himself in more than just one gument in his years at Riverside.

Like when he went after Angus for reasons we won't scuss.

In eighth grade, Donnelly got in a fight with Tom Coolough.

It ended up lasting for 6 blocks because Mr. Kasulis kept eaking it up.

Remember when he stole his parents car and got it stuck a creek?

We had some great drivers in our class. Like Joe Aniska. n entire government class was spent just recalling his cidents.

Or remember the time when Nicole Field saw a deer and t a guard rail, causing Rich to swerve ...? Though he erved a little too much and totaled his car.

Yeah, well, I guess thats understandable. Your eyes are e first to go when you reach his age.

Either that or Mrs. Pliss checked his eyes before he ove.

The nurse wasn't the only memorable faculty member. emember how James Denke always slept through Mr. vans calc class?

Can you blame him?

He worked us like a bunch of snaves, I mean slaves.

Denke had problems with other teachers as well. Denke idn't like Ms. Mis.

Really? Why?

He felt she violated his rules for human kindness.

Why? Was she mean to him?

No, just the opposite; she was nice to him.

Tony Sposto thought she was mean though, and tried to et out of her class halfway through the year.

Yeah, I heard she wouldn't let him wear his headphones.

It's amazing no one got hurt. Speaking of getting hurt,

I'm surprised Mr. Roberts didn't get hurt, what with all the flying pens and books, not to mention Rich Noto's flirtatious advances

K: Yeah, and I'm surprised Rich didn't put him in an early grave.

B: Speaking of graves, remember how Mr. Bednash and Lindsey Griffiths always used to fight with each other?

K: What does that have to do with graves?

B: Ummmm . . . Well, nothing, I guess. (confused look) Oh, but remember Ms. Lud?

K: Remember those poems everyone had to write about people?

B: Yeah, JT had to write about Joe Petrillo.

K: Actually Dan Wayno ended up writing it.

B: He did a good job of it too. No one could do a better job busting Joe than Dan

K: Remember the one Tony Niceletto wrote about Brenda?

B: How can anyone forget it? I though she'd never stop crying.

K: Remember Lucy Kristoff and Amy Connors our senior year?

B: No . . . actually, I don't.

K: Yeah, well, they weren't there for much of it.

B: What about Mandy?

K: I don't really remember her either.

B: Well, she did spend most of her time in Old Forge.

K: Yeah, even her boyfriend lived there.

B: Speaking of couples, Kristin and JT were our class couple.

K: There were others too. Like Lindsey Hanna and Pat Schaffer, Erin Kishel and Eric McGowan.

B: You and Vince

K: Miranda Starkz and Dan Wayno.

B: (nonchalantly) and Jenn and Jason and Pam.

K: And who could forget Danny Zuko and Sandy Dumbrowski in our senior play Grease?

B: Joe Aniska was Danny Zuko, I was Roger, and Vince was Sonny.

K: Keara was Rizzo, Nicole was Cha-Cha, Dersh was Patty

B: Rachael was Marty, Caitlin was Frenchie.

K: And Brenda was Girls Voice.

B: Remember Vince and Joes fruit salad at the cast party?

K: Yeah, they spent $80 just to make a fruit salad.

B: Just goes to show ya how much Joe likes fruits.

K: And remember our hall decorating? We always thought we did really good, but never seemed to win. It still had its moments though.

B: Like in 9th grade when John Wieckowski was racing with Nicole Field on his back and fell and chipped his tooth?

K: After that, everyone called him chip.

B: We sure had some good times at Riverside. But I better ge back to my fans.

K: OK, I have to get going too because I have . . .

B: Hey, I think I see Mike over there! Get outta my way!

2000 SALUTE TO RIVERSIDE

Graduation day will mark the end of all our times together, the time's we will keep in our hearts and in our memories forever.
But before we look to our future,
let's go back and rewind to some of those treasured times
we must sadly leave behind.
We were first introduced to Moosic for sixth grade.
We had DARE and our first dance.
Lasting friendships were made.
Seventh and eighth grade were so different and new.
Changing classes and lockers were hard to get used to.
Freshman year came next with our own hall and name.
Our first Spirit Week and Semi,
things would never be the same.
Ninth grade was a year to remember.
Driver's test were finally passed.
Our football team made it to states,
but our Prehistoric Hall came in dead last.
Junior year was about planning for the future,
friends, parties, work and college too.
Senior year was right around the corner,
so little time, but so much to do.
When our senior year finally arrived,
no one could believe it was here.
We had to learn how to accept that we wouldn't be back for the next school year.
Football season and homecoming highlighted the season of fall, along with golf and cross-country,
we are so very proud of you all.
Soon it was winter
causing snow and skiers to fall down.
The celebration of the new millennium was the talk of the town.
The bowling team had another great year.
The girls' basketball team brought a lot of cheer.
Our boys' basketball team showed us they were great.
It was a big upset when they beat the number one team in the state.
The talent and unit shows were fun and entertaining.
The Semi created new memories.
Not much time was remaining.

As a reminder of the way things used to be,
we opened our time capsule and discovered our own history.

Spring came next bringing the annual play.
"Grease" was the best.
What else is there to say?

Softball, track, and boys' tennis were played too.
They fought with their hearts.
To their sport, they were true.

Our baseball team is still competing,
always on the ball.
So far they are District Champions, will they take it all?

This year's Prom had everyone trying to "Hold on to the Night."
The seniors would not leave.
It was quite an emotional sight!

Senior projects were a new problem,
to some it was a threat.
The committee started off strict,
but in the end — took what they could get.

Class Night brought our high school career to an end.
"It's so Hard to Say Goodbye" to each and every crying friend.

Our friends are not all
we must leave behind.
A faculty like ours is truly hard to find.

The teachers here at Riverside made it a great place to be.
They helped us grow throughout the years and now must set us free.

As we sit here,
looking at this very stage,
we are forced to realize that we graduate in just two days.

It will mark the end of another great year that we have to walk away from holding our memories so dear.

Along with those memories,
please take this too.
No matter where you go,
the Class of 2000 is a part of you.

That part of you will never fade
along with your Viking Pride.
And now that it is over,
it is our turn to proudly salute Riverside.

CLASS WILL

I, Lindsey Griffiths, and I, Jennifer Butts, being of sound mind and body, leave the following to this year's underclassmen and teachers:

L — Joe Aniska leaves behind his tights and his "Lord of the Dance" Bandanna.

J — Melissa Bankowski leaves with an award for the most gym laps ever walked by a single student.

L — Mike Basile leaves his heart to little girls.

J — Gary Beck leaves a trail of awards long enough to span the earth 5 times.

L — Little Debbie Christiano leaves her own line of snack cakes to the cafeteria.

J — Amy Conner leaves the smell of incense in the hall.

L — Jim Cravetts leaves . . . finally.

J — Joe Reed leaves afraid of mouse traps.

L — Shari D'Annunzio leaves a silence in the halls unheard of ever before.

J — James Denke leaves his cynical pseudo-intelligent criticisms and a pedestal from which to spout them.

L — Maria Dente leaves taking care of Mark Samsell and Jason Posluszny.

J — Nicole Field leaves the unit advisor wishing this had been her last year.

L — Matt Grasso leaves enough hair dye to repaint the school.

J — Danielle Williams and Pam Gursky leave to become full-time moms.

L — Lindsey Hanna leaves Pat Shaffer with a new kind of ball and chain.

J — Pam Hanna leaves a box of love letters and a list of "Pam-Slams."

L — Kristen Harris leaves J.T. Yarem with bruises.

J — J.T. Yarem leaves a bottle of Syrup.

L — Theresa Kinney leaves her laugh echoing through all the halls.

J — Erin Kishel leaves mad that she wasn't crowned Prom Queen.

L — Ryan Lindsey leaves with much darker skin than he had when he first came in.

J — Mark Malinowski just leaves.

L — Rich Noto leaves his superego to a certain junior girl.

J — Frank Moeller leaves a puddle of drool on each of his desks.

L — Keara Piekanski leaves her big hair to Meredith Godino.

J — Vince Pagnotti leaves dragging Kali Racavich by the neck.

L — Josh Snodgrass leaves following the leader (or should we follow him?)

J — Andy Riviera leaves wearing socks with sandals and singing his theme song.

L — Jesse Ware leaves with her own style.

J — Denise Ziagos leaves as happy as ever.

L — John Young leaves with his own proof purchase.

J — Lucy Kristoff leaves thinking no one likes her.

L — Bill Koval leaves the ability to stall any R erside teacher.

J — Melissa Williams leaves enough McDonald toys to fill the auditorium.

L — Stacy Hronich leaves with her new-found talent to melt Barbie Dolls.

J — Mike Celuck leaves missing truck parts in parking lot.

L — Jeff Wincovitch leaves gum on Mr. Mig ceiling and chairs.

J — Jesse Richardson leaves the teachers wishing she'd paint over the old murals.

L — Caitlin and Rachael Mallis leave still arguing over who bought the last pack of gum.

J — Pat Shaffer leaves his red-neck status to Mr. O'Neil.

L — Steve Gronski leaves no regrets.

J — Sheena Daniels leaves Mr. Yanoshot mad that she couldn't shut up for two minutes in homeroom.

L — Casey Berkosky would leave, but he did wake up yet.

J — Chris Callis leaves while finding every possible way to make fun of Tom Coolbaugh.

L — Jeff Derenick leaves some tips for the lun ladies.

J — Rob Donnelly leaves the crossword puzzles just couldn't figure out.

L — Bryan Douglas leaves faster than anyone has ever seen him run before, hoping he'll never see another yearbook again.

J — Tony Sposto leaves creative excuses for ziness.

L — Jeff Evans leaves very, very quietly.

J — Mike Trescavage leaves with a new real "Shady" image.

L — Bobby Ware leaves with the wrong class.

J — Amanda McCawley leaves us all in smiles.

L — Jason Mitchell leaves the halls very safe.

J — Jason Ortona leaves a year's supply of salt each of the juniors.

L — Ashlie Fedor leaves the population buzzing with rumors.

J — Bill Gnall will leave when he remembers come first.

L — Dershna Patel leaves behind her Sunshine Award to assume a new "Diva" identity.

J — Tiffany Moeller leaves for Disney World to increase her Mickey Mouse collection.

L — John Wieckowski can't leave at all; his leash is too tight.

J — Brenda Tabor leaves a new tributary to the Lackawanna River, which may cause flooding un-

Rich Noto stops busting her.

L — Eric McGowan leaves his cowboy hat to Stalbird.

J — Stacey Sharek leaves ... but only because Tommy is dragging her.

L — Paul Rodney leaves his neck piercing to anyone who will take it.

J — Liana Silva leaves us with some interesting stories.

L — Bob Slusher leaves thinking he's the "Big Daddy" (I know you're the Big Daddy)

J — Sarkis Tulaney leaves to pursue his truck-driving dreams.

L — Miranda Staretz and Dan Wayno leave together ... amazingly.

J — Luck Hudson leaves a list of problems he was hoping you could solve.

L — Joe Cali leaves a great legacy.

J — Rob Flannery leaves us wishing we knew him better.

L — Ryan Getts leaves ... Oh blah dee, Oh blah dah, Life Goes On ...

J — Nolan Hahn would leave his Pink Floyd shirts, but he likes them too much.

L — Ed Higgins leaves a shrine to the Dallas Cowboys.

J — Kyle Lillis leaves thinking his stereo system is the best thing in the world.

L — Tom Maines leaves with no one knowing who he was ...

J — We all thought he was Angus.

L — Joe Renaldi leaves swinging his golf club.

J — Martina Wheeler leaves her sister to fight her own battles.

L — Michael Morgan leaves his massive frame to Christ Oustrich.

J — Justine Ransom leaves her sparkly outfit to the new drum majorette.

L — Tony Nicoletto leaves quietly busting EVERYBODY.

J — I leave my extremely annoying perfectionist habits to Nora Lucchi.

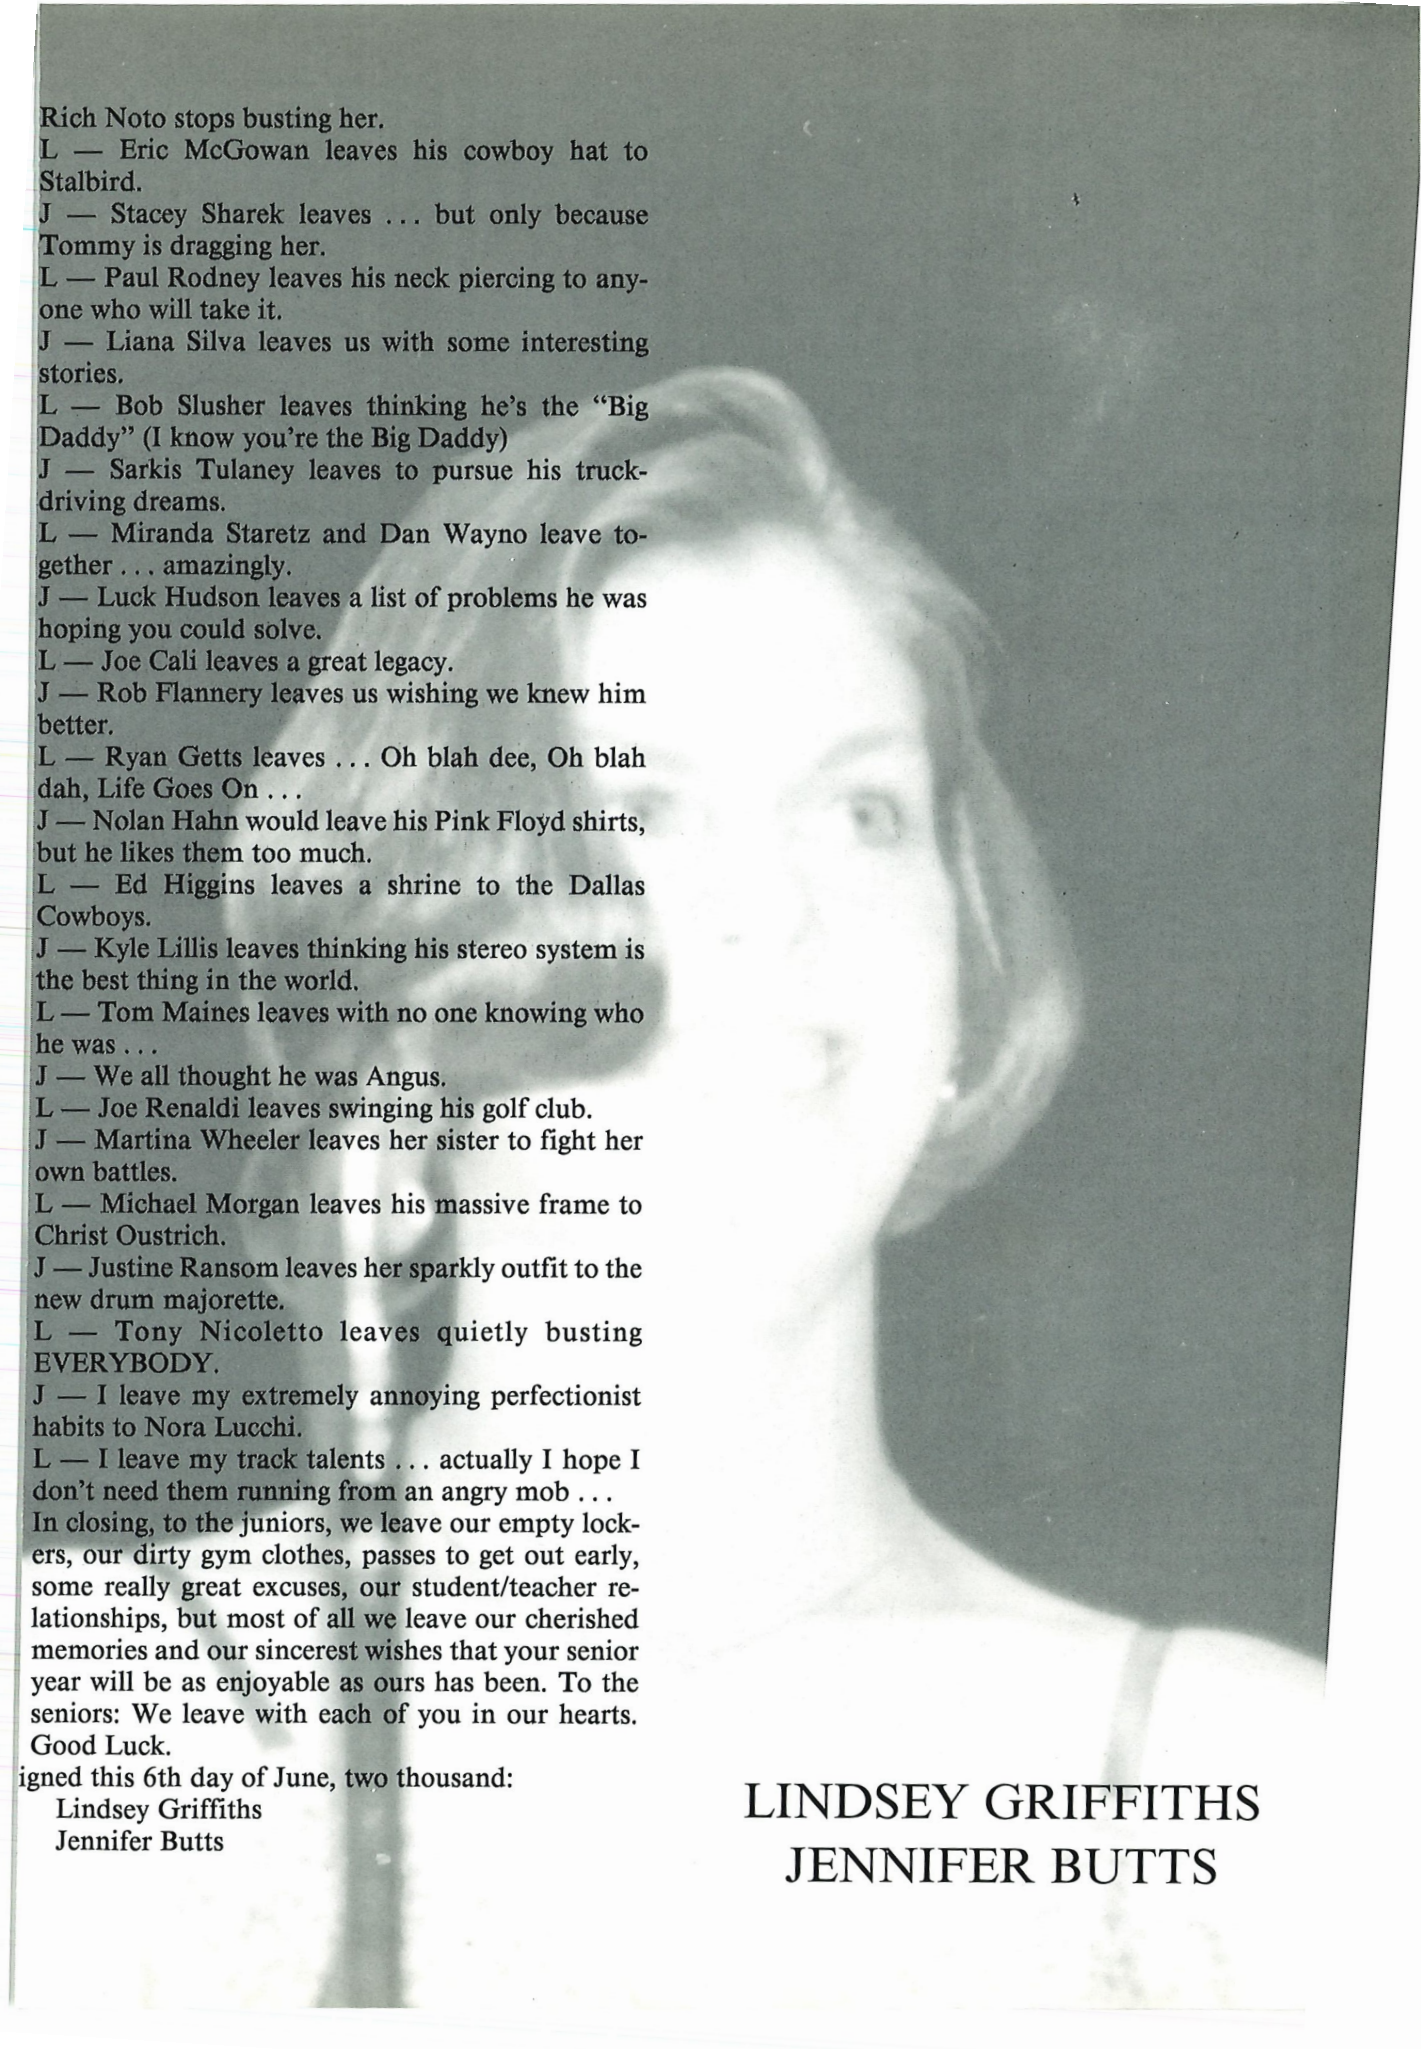

L — I leave my track talents ... actually I hope I don't need them running from an angry mob ...

In closing, to the juniors, we leave our empty lockers, our dirty gym clothes, passes to get out early, some really great excuses, our student/teacher relationships, but most of all we leave our cherished memories and our sincerest wishes that your senior year will be as enjoyable as ours has been. To the seniors: We leave with each of you in our hearts. Good Luck.

GREAT JOB, VIKES!

CROSS-COUNTRY

Senior Captain Ryan Getts led a talented group of underclassmen to a very fulfilling season that made Coach Ken Bednash proud. Although considered a rebuilding year, the Vikes still unexpectedly won their share of races. Lackawanna League All-Star Ryan Getts set one course record in a victory at Delaware Valley, and broke Riverside's standing record at the current home course at McDade Park during the Commissioner's Invitational. After a very successful season, a devastating, late-season knee sprain prevented the Senior/All-Star from advancing to the Pennsylvania State Cross-Country meet. Big names to watch out for next year are Juniors Ryan Onofrey and Dave Wozniak and Sophomore Paul Novak.

The girls this year had a great season as well. Lindsey Griffiths, due to an injury, was out for most of it. She would have been the only senior on the team. Sara Davis, a freshman stepped up to fill her place and should be a big name to watch out for in the future. Great job guys!!!

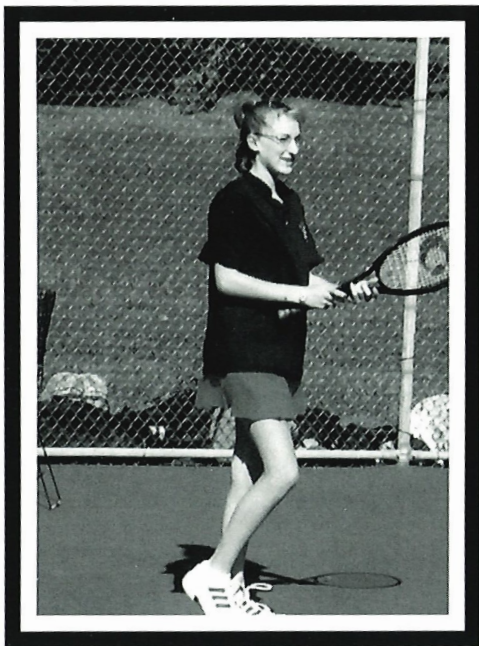

GIRLS' TENNIS

This year's girls' tennis team experienced another competitive season. Junior co-captains Nora Ann Lucchi and Lisa Hudak led the team. Junior Sirena Bracey and freshmen Lora Nageli and Jenna Filipowski also contributed to the team's success. Mr. John Radzillowicz coached the team.

GOLF

The 2000 golf team had an amazing season. They finished as District League Champions! Mr. Helgeson again served as coach to this team. The team was made up mostly of seniors. The seniors this season were J. T. Yarem, Drazdowski, Dave Paden, Joe Renaldi, Mike Trescavage, and Sarkis. Other seniors who made contributions were Joe Renaldi, Celuck, and Ryan Lindsey. This year all six seniors were either picked on an All-District team or received honorable mention. Overall, it was a great season and the seniors will be missed.

1000 POINTS

GARY BECK
— 1125

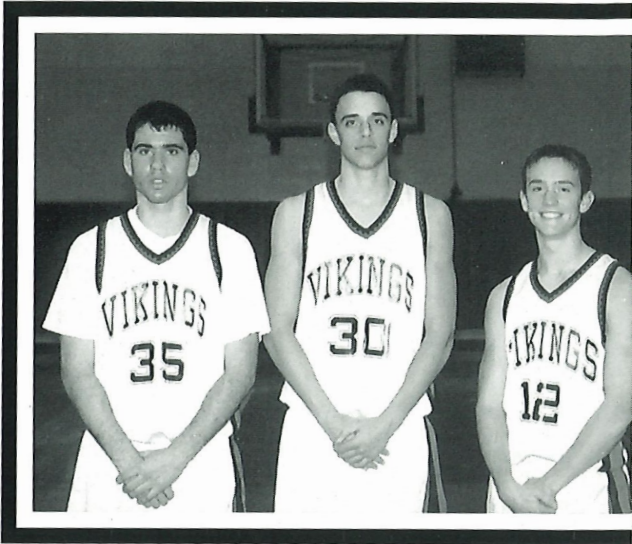

This year, the Class of 2000 was lucky enough to have two extremely great athletes reach the thousandth point of their high school careers. Mike Morgan and Gary Beck both reached their thousandth point this basketball season. But what is most interesting about this story is that both young men were preceded by their fathers in this honor. Gary Beck Sr. attained his thousandth point in '67, with a total of 1001 points for his high school career. Coach Michael Morgan reached his thousandth point in '75, with a point total of 1020. Mike scored his thousandth point on December 15, 1999 at the Wyoming Seminary game. Gary attained his thousandth point at the Mountain View game on February 11, 2000. Mike also broke the Riverside record of 1252 points set by Charles Brady in '72. Gary ended this season with a total of 1125 points, and Mike ended with a total of 1485 points.

MIKE MORGAN

BOYS' BASKETBALL

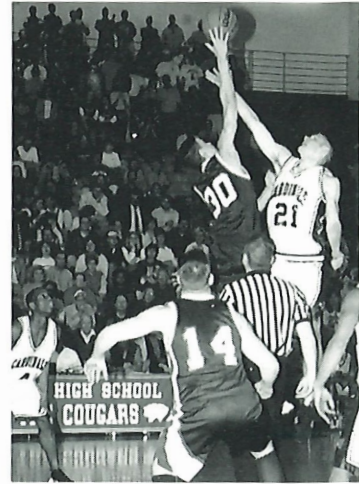

The basketball team had an incredible season this year, making it all the way to the State Quarterfinals. This was a hard earned season and we are so proud of you guys!!! The team also was runner-up in the District II Class AA game. The coaches of this year's team were Mike Morgan, Paul Dougherty, and Dan Digwood. Senior captains this year were Ryan Getts, Mike Morgan, and Gary Beck. Other Seniors were Ryan Lindsay, J. T. Yarem, John Wieckowski, and Eric McGowan. McGowan, Getts, Wieckowski, Steve Imdorf and Billy Drazdowski all stepped up to help returning starters, Morgan and Beck. Mike Morgan and Gary Beck had spectacular seasons, each breaking the 1000 point mark.

CAPTAINS

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

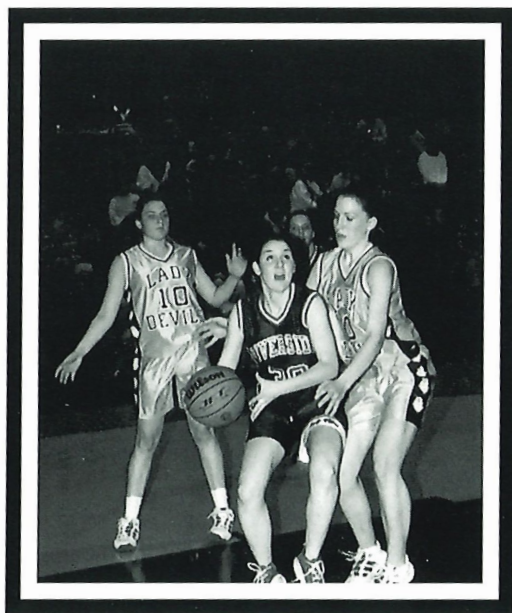

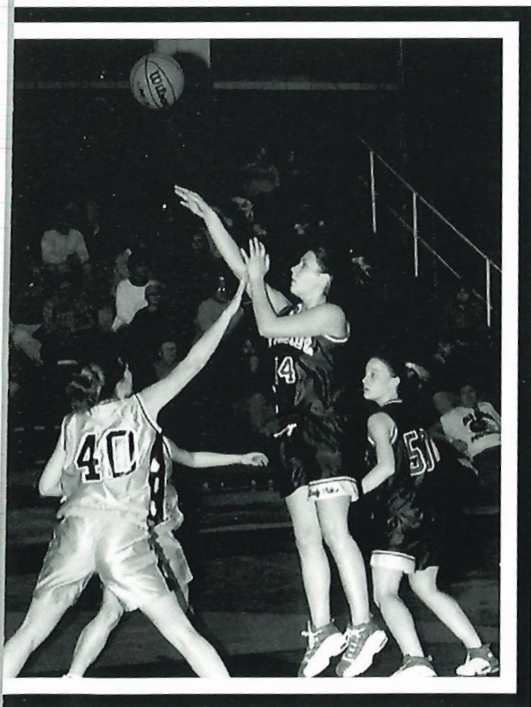

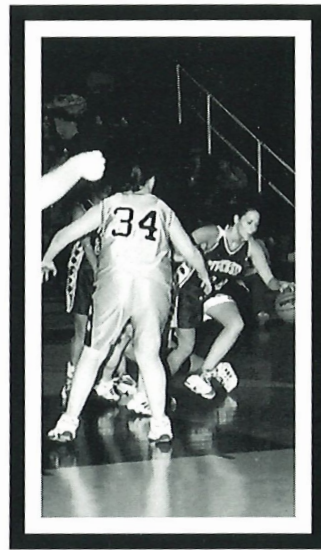

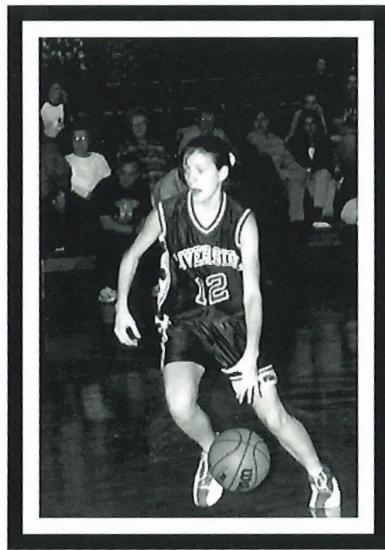

The girls' basketball team had a great season under new coaches Bob Weber and Arrol Mar. The senior captains were Lindsey Hanna, Kristin Harris, and Maria Dente. The team was led by only two returning starters, Maria Dente and Julie Ott. Also, a very dedicated and dependable son, Justine Ransom, helped the team out a lot. Great job, Lady Vikes!

GIRLS' TRACK

Leaving a fresh, quick, and strong pack to set their own precedents, Lindsey Griffiths, Shari D'Annunzio, and Justine Ransom leave behind 2 Jordan Relay Championships, medals, and many victories to inspire. These senior girls made large contributions to the success of the 2000 track team. Sara Davis, Kristin Gretz, Heather Walsh, and Katie Coolbaugh had a big impact.

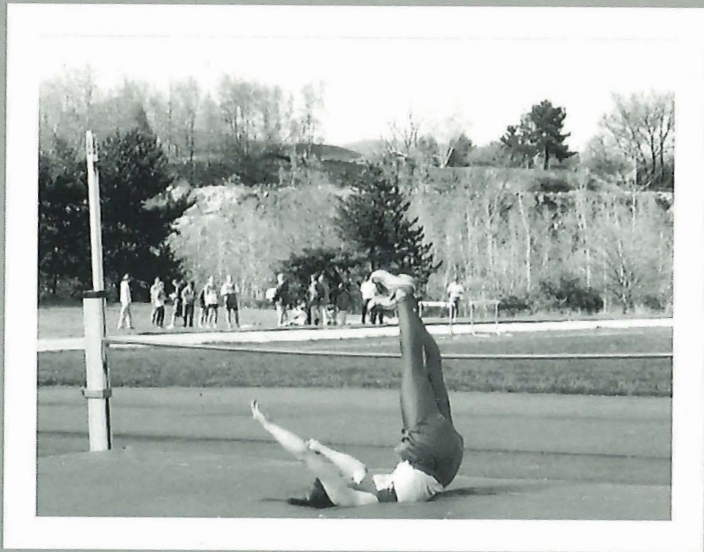

JUSTINE

SHARI

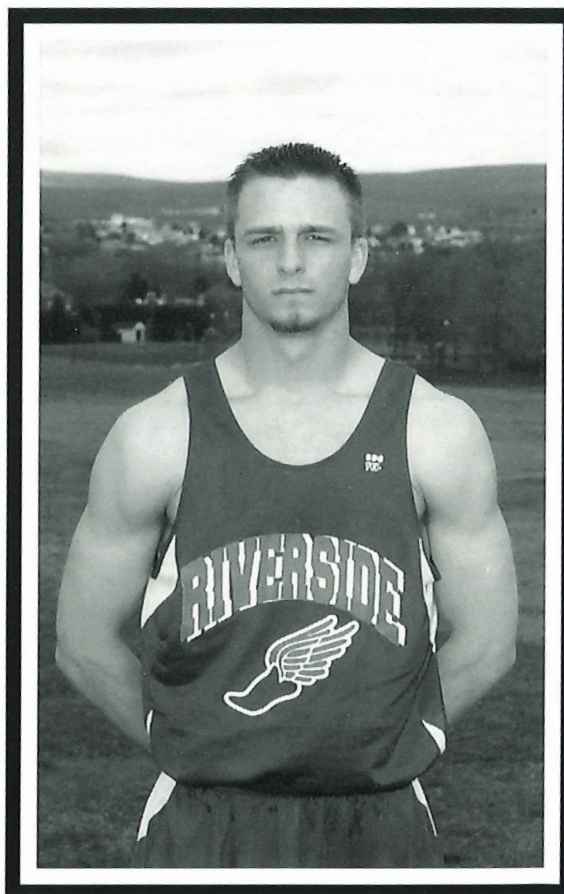

LINDSEY

BOYS' TRACK

Joe Reed was the only senior on the boys' track team this year. He was a bullet in the 100 meter and 200 meter sprints. Ryan Onofrey surprised all with the mountains of strength it takes to run the 800 meter, 1600 meter, 4 x 800 meter, and 3200 meter. Eddie Smith set a new record for the pole vault of 10 feet 6 inches. Billy Drazdowski, Kenny Dente, Shawn Cole, Reed Shield, and others contributed to a successful season.

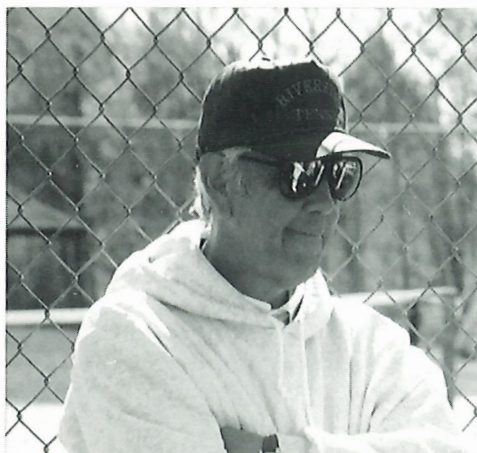

JOE

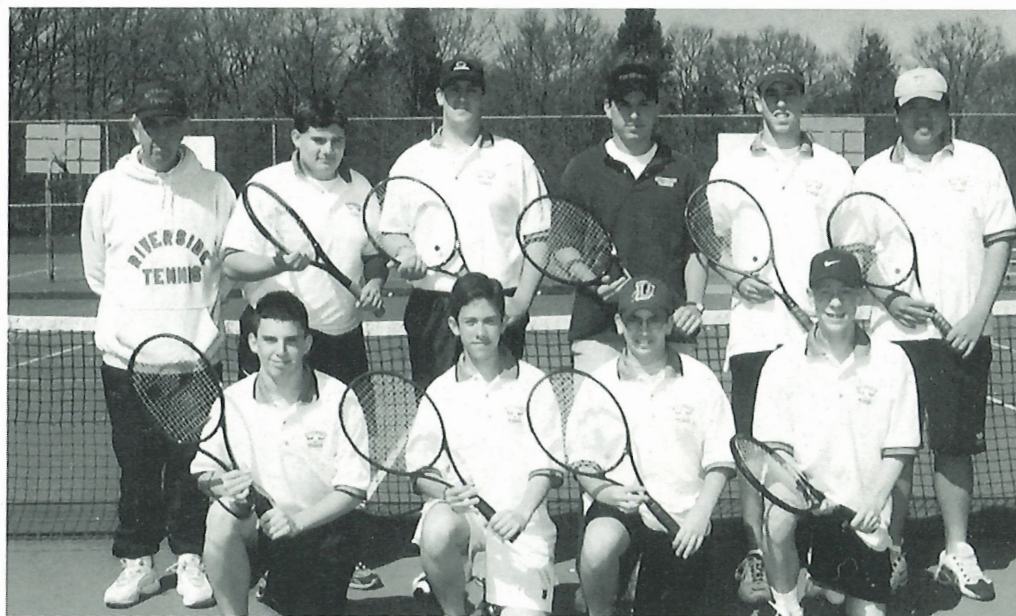

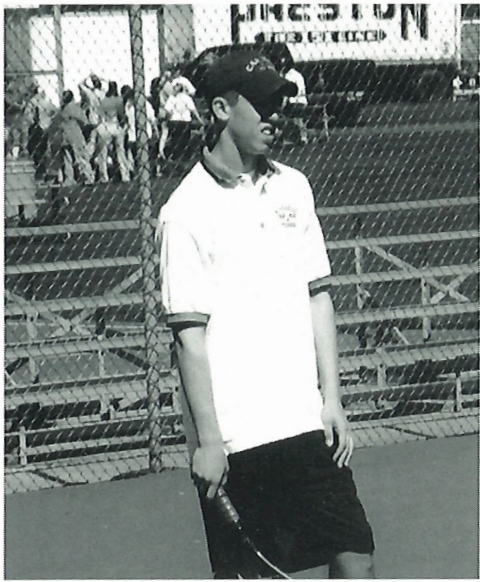

BOYS' TENNIS

The boys' tennis team had a great season this year. They went 5-5, and was coached by Mr. John Radzillowicz. There were 3 seniors on the team this year, James Denke, Joe Renaldi, and Tom Coolbaugh. The #1 seed went to Michael MacArt. Phaiboun Sophabmixay was #2. The #3 seed was occupied by Michael Schmitt, and #4 was taken by senior James Denke. This season was full of achievements, one of them being that Mike MacArt beat Sunjay Aurora of Prep. Great job guys!!!

SOFTBALL

The softball team spent most of their season trying to find a pitcher; but we had fun doing it. The Captains were Martina "Tuck" Wheeler, and Kristen "Hot Rod" Harris. Our senior, Jessica "The Twitcher" Ware was a big part of the team. The team had some newcomers and old faces. Our coaches were David P. Ado, Steve Petrunich, Bill Roover, and Paul Kwaiski. Great Season, Lady Vikes!!

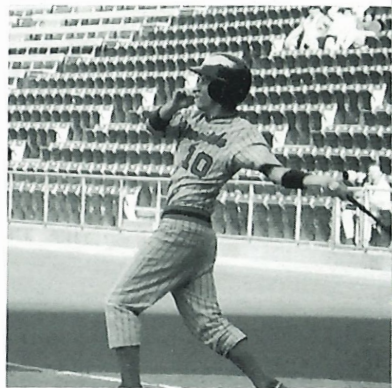

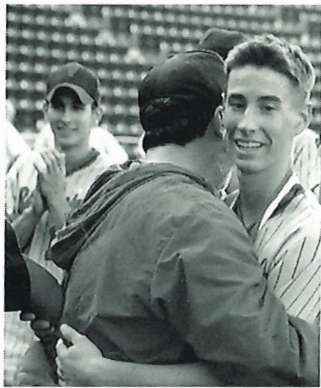

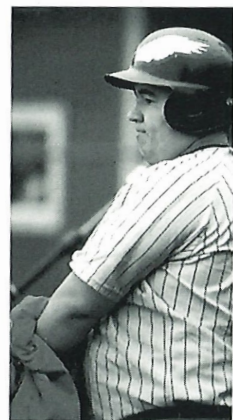

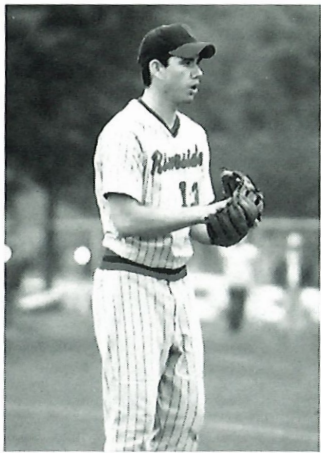

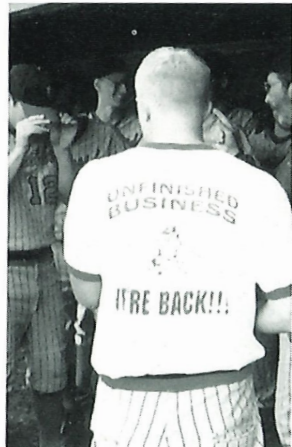

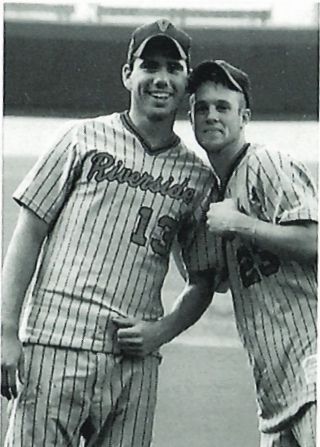

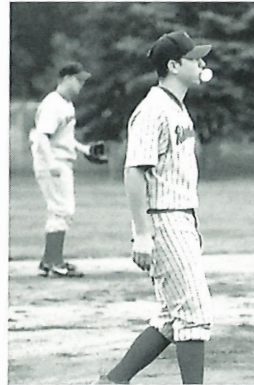

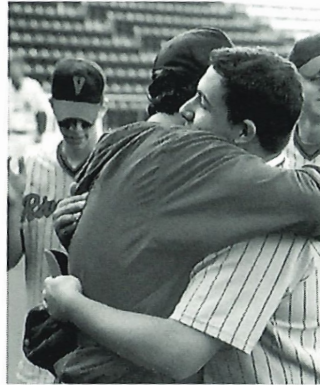

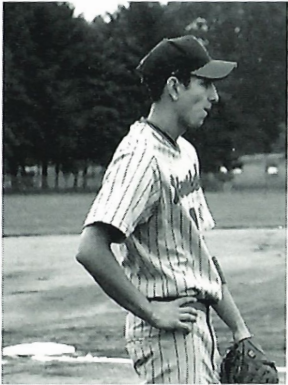

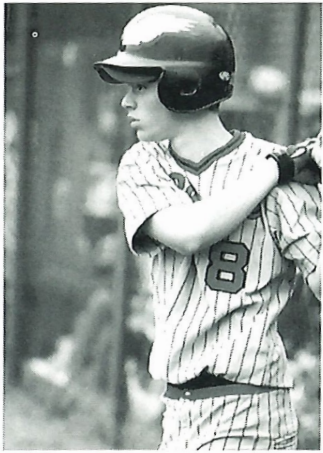

BASEBALL

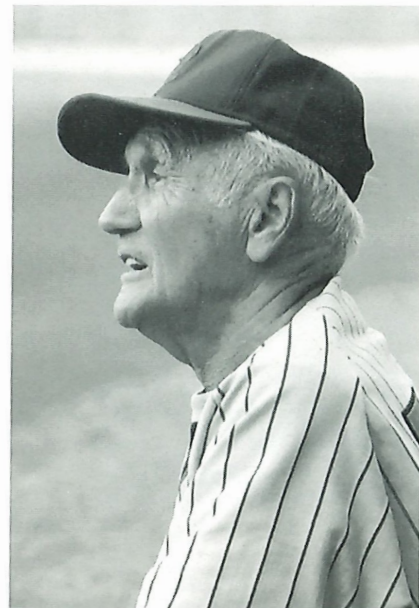

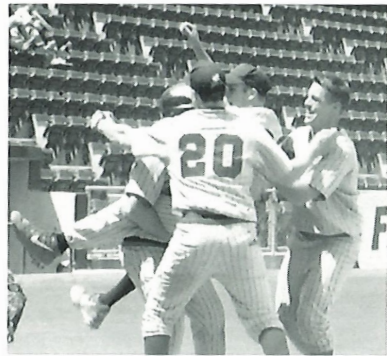

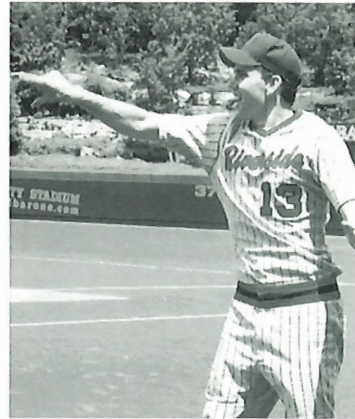

The 2000 Viking baseball season could not come soon enough. It came with great expectations, high goals, and was packed with energy and excitement. Being the #1 ranked "A" school in the state, the Vikes didn't disappoint. After steam rolling over the league for a perfect 11-0 record, new excitement arose on the way to Riverside's first ever District title. From there the Vikings made things interesting, allowing teams to stay close and then snatch the game away in the last inning. The Vikes' season was like a fairy tale or a great movie in the sense that it had a sad ending, losing in the state semifinals, but people walked away saying how great of a run this season was. The mighty Vikings season gave the school and entire community a new found pride, the first ever District title, and most importantly left a legacy that will last forever on the Moosic diamond, as well as the championship trophies and the banners in our halls.

The captains were John Wieckowski, Gary Beck, Mike Basile, and Mark Samsell. Other key seniors were Joe Aniska, J. T. Yarem, Mike Trescavage, Mike Morgan, Eric McGowan, and Andy Rivera. The team played under the leadership of Morgan Jones, Dan Digwood, and Frank Lalak (Poppy). Great job Vikes! We are Proud of you!!!

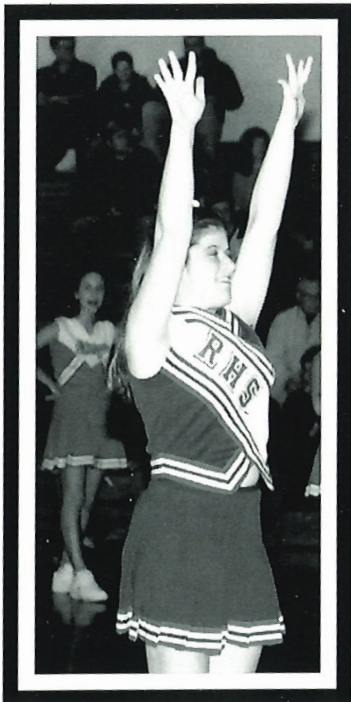

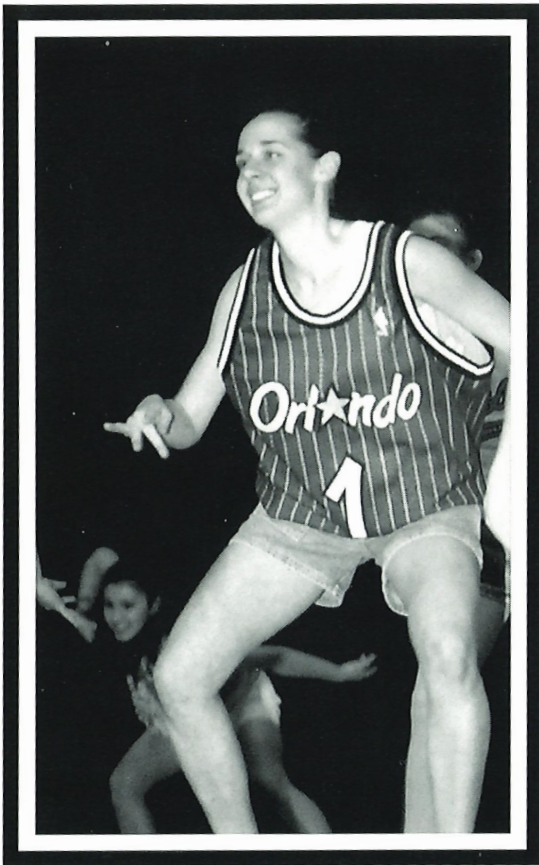

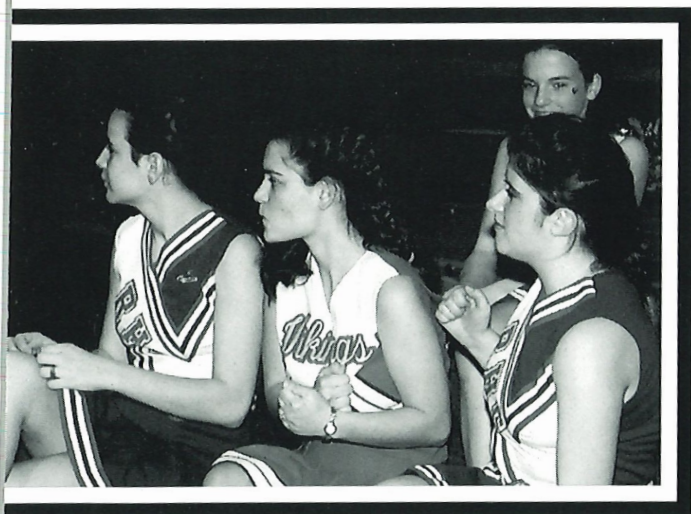

BOWLING

The Bowling Team had a variety of seniors. We had two seasons and three teams each season. Senior members were Theresa Kinney, Jessica Ware, Tony Sposto, James Denke, Matt Grasso, Ed Higgins, Jeff Derenick, Tom Coolbaugh, Chris Callis, Rob Donnelly, Jason Ortona, and Kristen Harris. WE also had a great junior bowler — Brian Chase.

At the Homecoming Rally, Luke Hudson was named Third Runner-Up, Casey Berkowsky was Second Runner-Up. First Runner-Up was Angus Maines, and Homecoming Prince was Pat Shaffer. The 2000 Homecoming King was Joe

THE KING'S COURT

The Talent Show featured many wonderful acts, most of which were performed by seniors. Caitlin and Rachael Mallis started the show off by singing "In His Eyes" from Jekyll and Hyde with Joe Aniska singing "Confrontation." Joe entertained us with his Andy Kauffman and Tony Vincent imitations. Bryan Douglas amazed us all when he sang "Amazed" by Lonestar, and John Young sang "Shimmer." Jesse Richardson sang "You Were Meant For Me" by Jewel. Shari D'Annunzio, Martina Wheeler, Lucy Kristoff, and Jen Powell danced to Britney Speare's "Hit Me Baby One More Time." Dershna Patel and Carly Streznetsky sang "Yesterday" and "Sukiyaki." Master of Ceremonies was eighth grader Cody Schield. It was a great show.

TALENT

PASSING OF THE SWORD

The annual semiformal "Passing of the Sword" was held at St. Stanislaus Center on February 20, 2000. The new Unit heads were: Drum Majorette, Jennifer Rugletic; Twirling Captain, Kristen Gretz; Feature Twirler, Rochelle Padden; Swing Flag Captain, Krystal Kane; Feature Swing Flag, Chrissy Connolly. JV Co-Captains were Sharee Marciano and Cara Cacioppo; Pom Pon Co-Captains, Mary Barrett and Colleen Joyce; Feature Pom Pon, Stacey Svadeba; Varsity Co-Captains were Christina Knight and Leslie Williams. Jessica Lemoncelli was named 2001 Feature Dancer. The highlight of the night was when the '99-'00 Miss Viking Nicole Field passed the sword to the '00-'01 Miss Viking Meredith Godino.

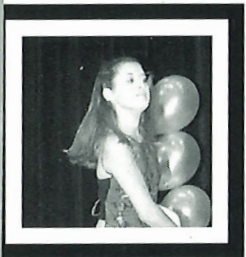

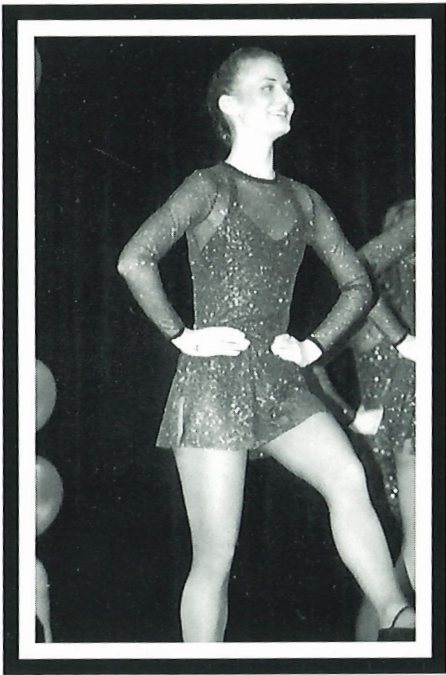

LET'S CELEBRATE

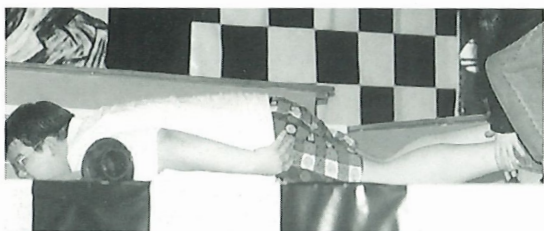

The theme for the 2000 Unit Show was "Let's Celebrate." This was a special show, because it was the 20th Unit Show. There were 21 dances, each to a song from 1980-2000. Each dance was choreographed by Miss Viking Nicole Field, Squad Captains and Feature Dancer Keara Piekanski. The Seniors danced to "Time After Time." The night was complete with the recognition of the past 20 Miss Vikings, with 11 of them coming onto the stage.

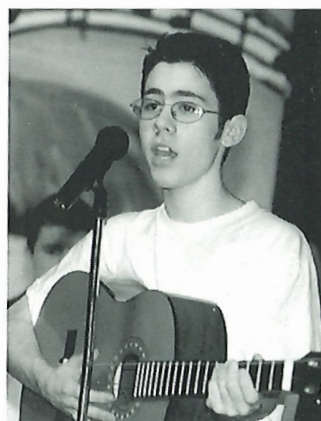

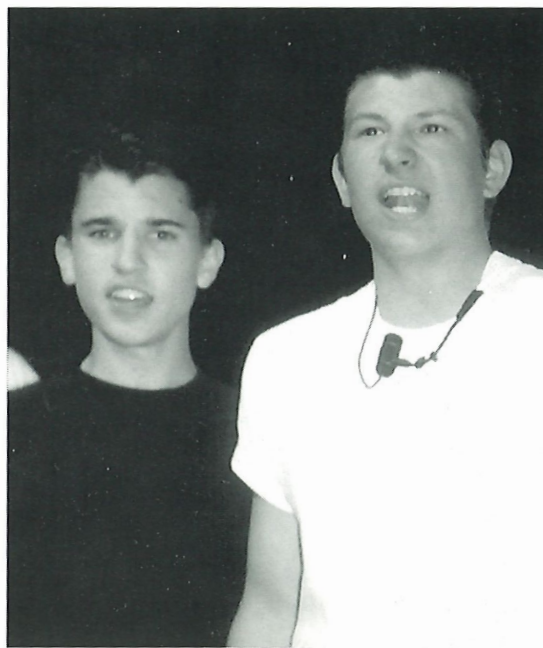

This Spring's play was "Grease." The cast was led by Joe Aniska as Danny Zuko and Carly Streznetcky as Sandy Dumbroski. The Greasers were Ryan Onofrey as Kenickie, Bryan Douglas as Roger, Vince Pagnotti as Sonny, and Ryan Joyce as Doody. The Pink Ladies were Keara Piekanski as Rizzo, Rachael Mallis as Marty, Sirena Bracey as Jan, and Caitlin Mallis as Frenchy. Also, Corey Thomas was a great Eugene and Dershna Patel played a very peppy Patty Simcox. Kyle Surridge rock and rolled as Johnny Casino, while Dave King was Vince Fontaine. Jen Stocki was a formidable Miss Lynch, and Chrissy Casale was a great teen angel. Nicole Field was a wonderful Cha Cha DiGregorio. It was one of the best performances at Riverside.

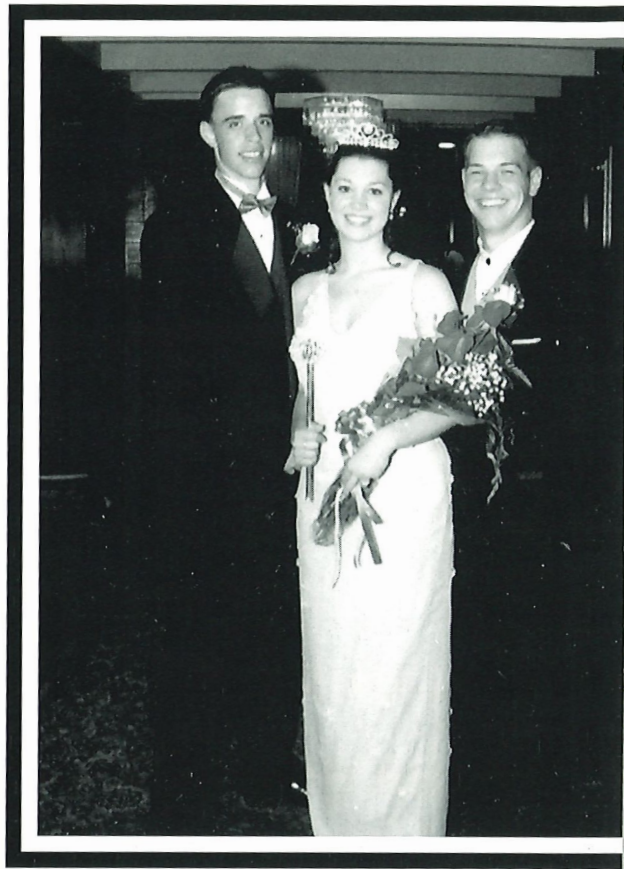

"GREASE"

HOLD ON TO THE NIGHT

The theme of the Prom this year was "Hold On To The Night." The Court was Christina Casale, the Queen's Scepter Bearer, Carly Streznetcky, the King's Trophy Bearer, Nora Ann Lucci, the Queen's Crown Bearer, Jessica Lemoncelli, First Junior Attendant. Erin Kishel was named Second Senior Attendant, and Dershna Patel was First Senior Attendant. Keara Piekanski was crowned Prom Queen of 2000, while Michael Morgan and John Weickowski tied for Prom King of 2000. The night ended with the playing of "Hold On To The Night." After the song ended, the seniors gathered together to cry with each other, and hug one another, not wanting to let the night go. It was a memorable experience for all who attended.

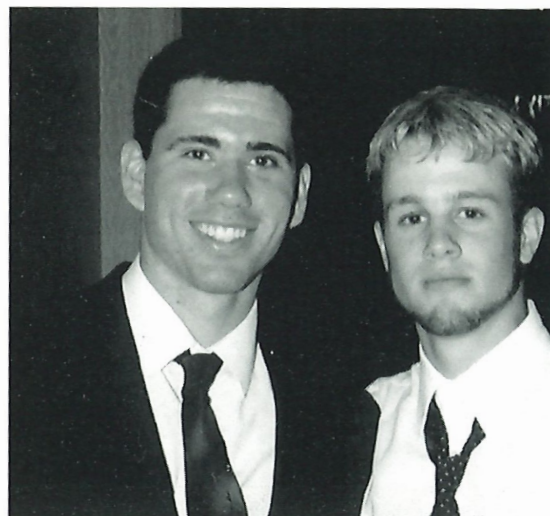

ALL HONORS

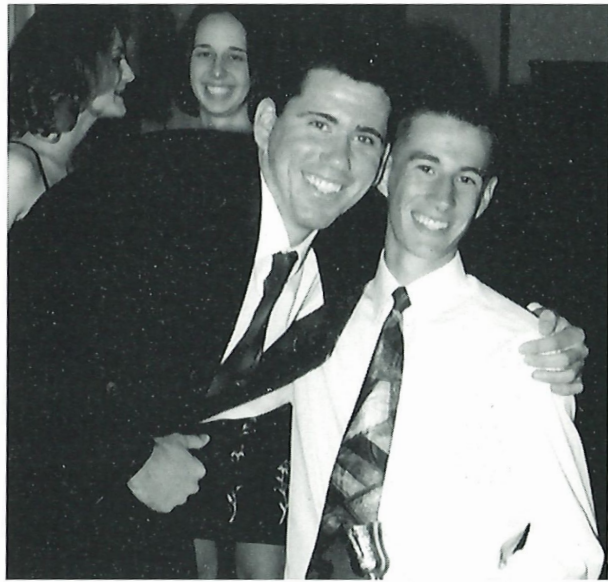

CLASS NIGHT

Class Night was a very emotional night during which the Class Prophecy was read. The Night reached it's high point at the end of a great slide show, put on by Nicole Field and Lindsey Hanna, when Dershna Patel sang, "It's So Hard to Say Good-Bye to Yesterday."

The thirty-eighth annual Commencement exercises took place Thursday, June 8, 2000 at 8:00 PM in the high school auditorium. The four graduating students of the Class of 2000 gave orations. Valedictorian Rachael Mallis presented her speech entitled The Hardest Part of Letting Go Is Holding On. Salutatorian, Frank Getts spoke on the subject of The Forging of the Bond. Third Honors Graduate Caitlin Mallis addressed the Class on the topic of To Each His Future; Tomorrow's Past. Fourth Honors Graduate Gary Beck presented an oration entitled Choices That Matter. The Class of 2000 sang The National Anthem, Lean On Me, In My Own Words, and the Alma Mater. Musical director was Miss Carol Hapstak, Pianist was Mr. Ron Geise.

VALEDICTORIAN
RACHAEL MALLIS

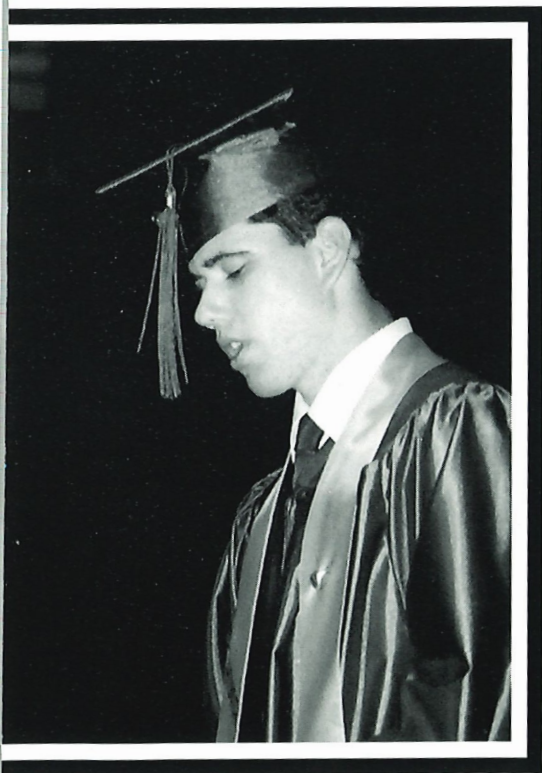

THIRD HONORS
CAITLIN MALLIS

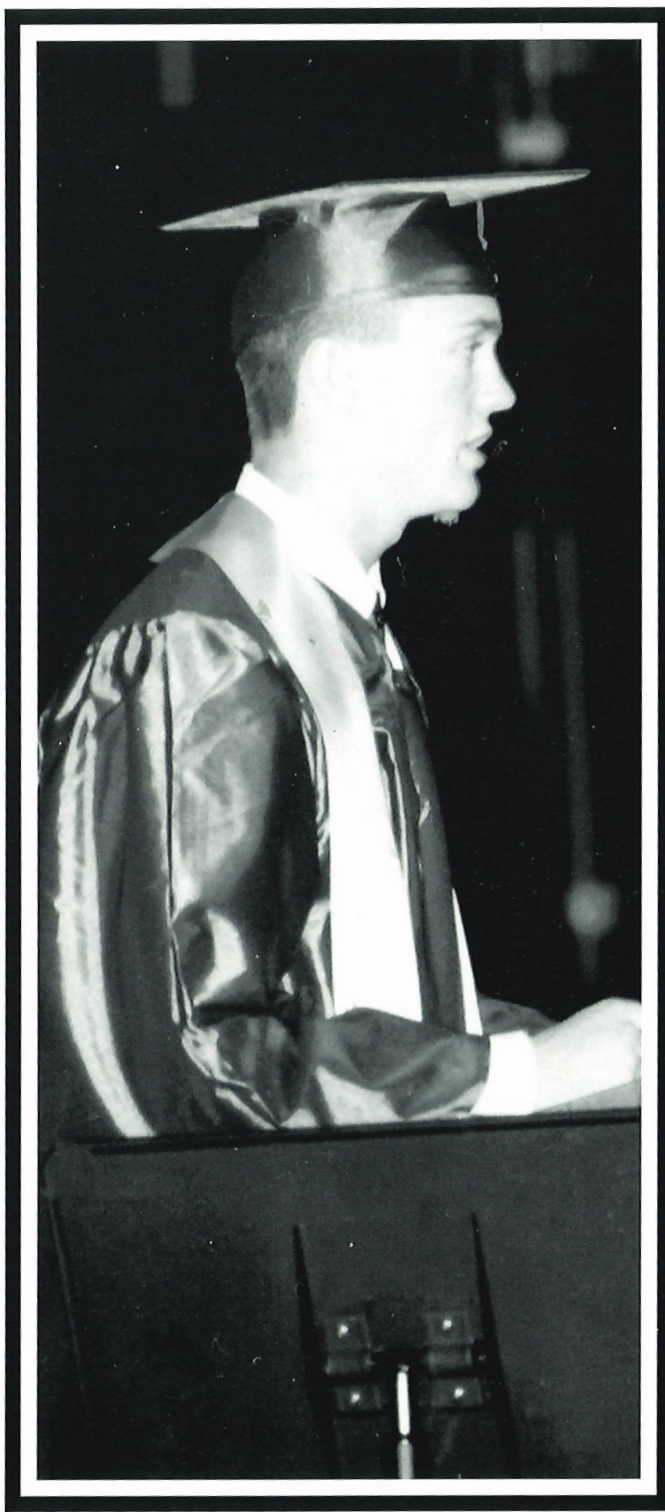

ATION

The principal speaker of the evening was Superintendent of Schools Dr. John F. Rooney. High school principal Mr. Robert Ruthkosky presented the Class of 2000. Vice Principal Mr. Joseph Moceyunas and the Board of Education President Mr. Neil DeAngelo presented diplomas.

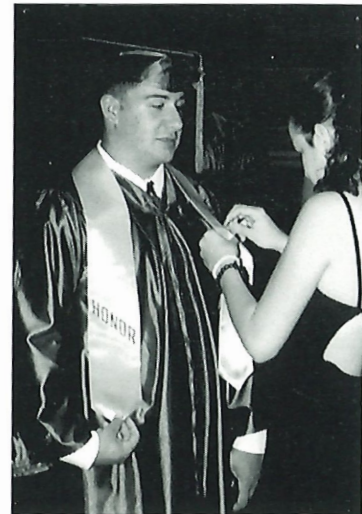

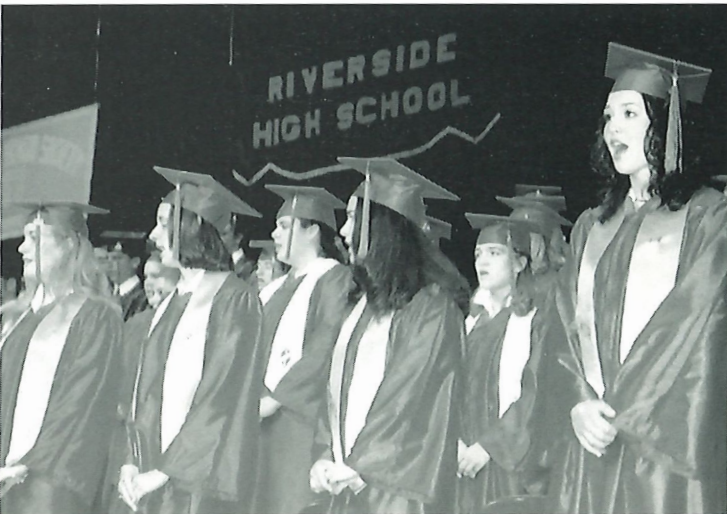

Following the ceremony, Mr. Robert Thomas and Mrs. Nancy Thomas held a reception in the graduates' honor in the high school cafeteria. It is a night for graduates to reflect on their thirteen years of friendship and guidance. The night was not only a closing of one chapter in their lives, but more importantly, a new beginning.

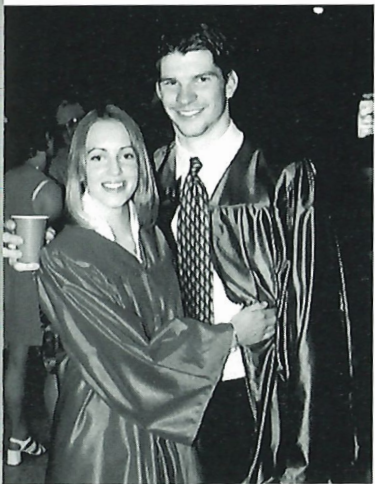

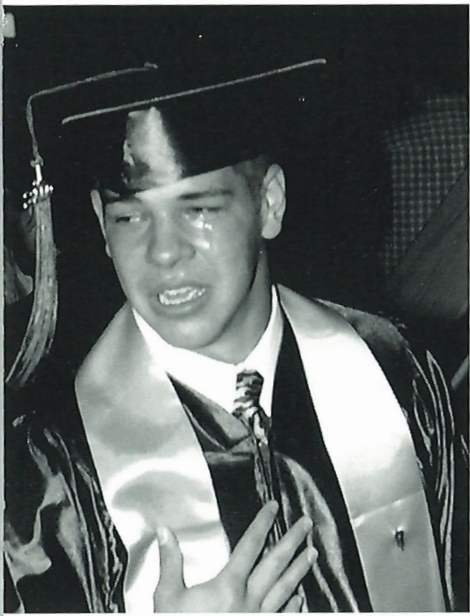

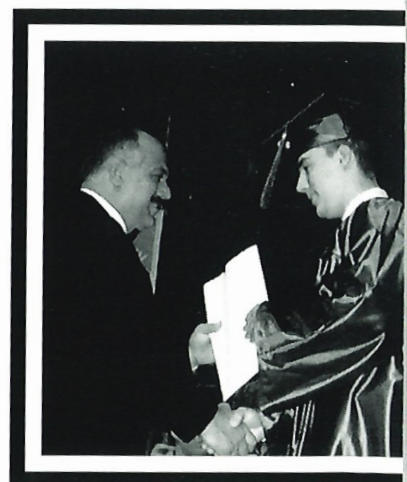

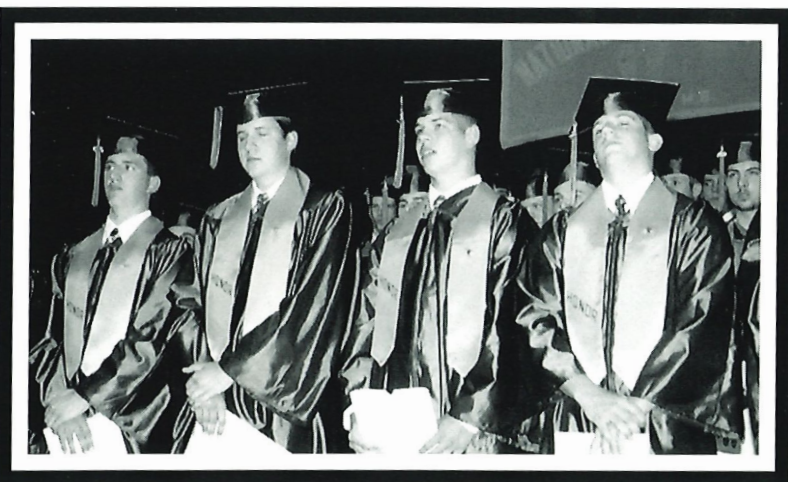

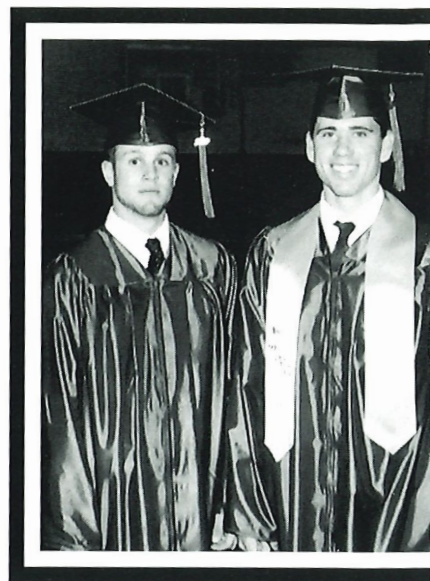

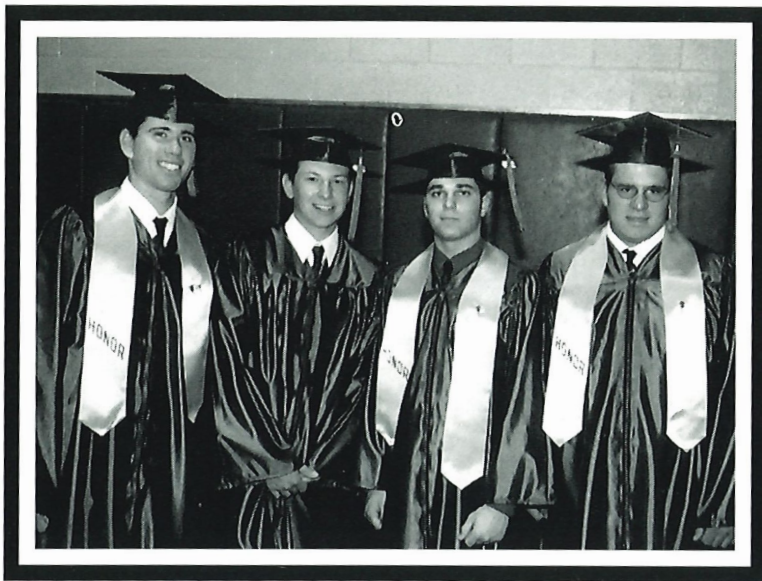

FOURTH HONORS
GARY BECK

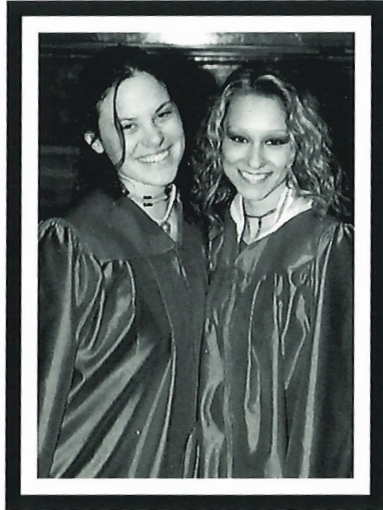

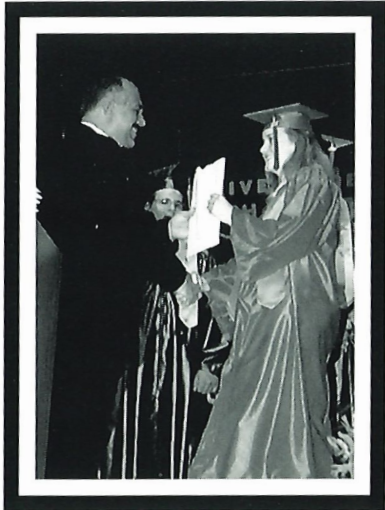

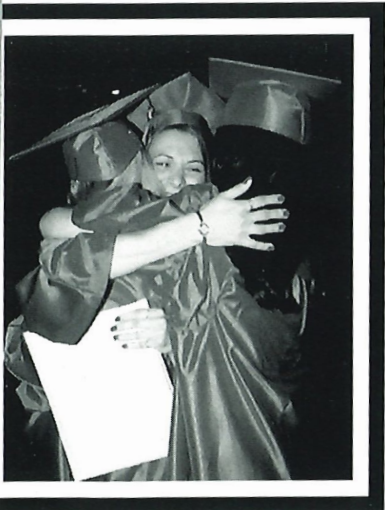

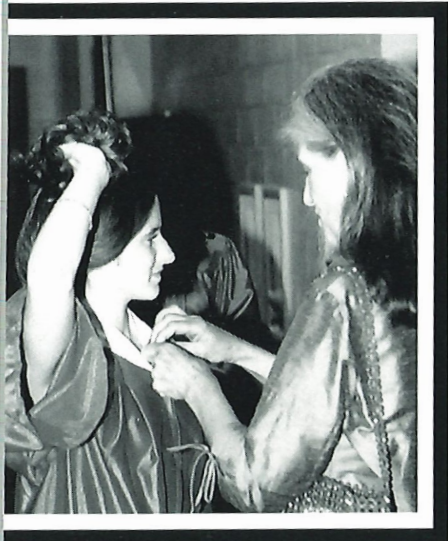

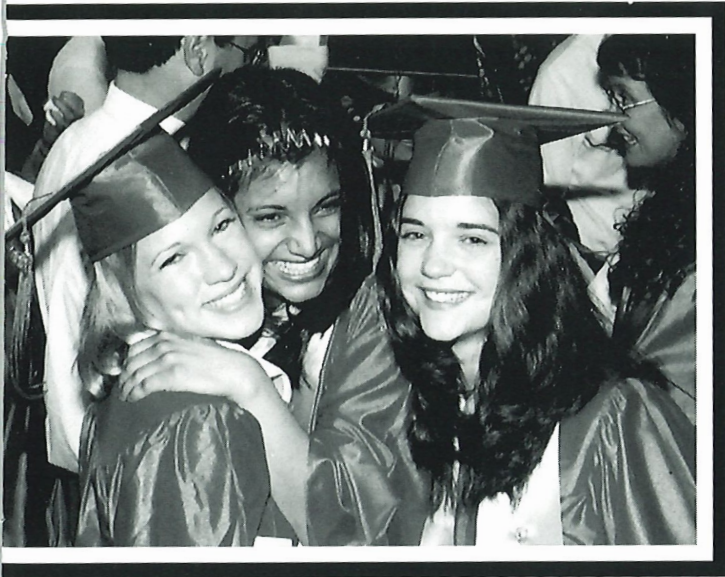

SALUTATORIAN
RYAN GETTS

CLASS PROPHECY

The scene opens with Keara shopping at Gap Kids for her 8 year old son's birthday present.

Keara: Excuse me sir, can you help me with this item?

Rich: (turning around) Sorry miss, I don't work here.

Keara: Rich, is that you?

Rich: Yeah, Keara?!

Keara: What are you doing at Gap Kids . . . shopping for your children?

Rich: No, I have a modeling shoot here today.

Keara: For Gap Kids!!!

Rich: I've been working here for the last five years! I get all the free clothes I want, and the shirts fit great!

Keara: Good for you.

Rich: So, what have you been up to?

Keara: Well I'm the President of the Hair Club for Men.

Rich: What?

Keara: I donate hair to balding men in need.

Rich: How did you get into that business?

Keara: Do you remember Bill Koval?

Rich: Sure, I remember him.

Keara: He was my first customer. He twirled his hair off because of his stressful occupation.

Rich: Oh really, what was that?

Keara: He had to obey his owner's . . . I mean his girlfriend's every command.

Rich: Oh really . . . speaking of girlfriend and boyfriend, what-ever happened to our class couples?

Keara: Remember Jenn Butts and Jason Ortona?

Rich: Did they ever get married?

Keara: Almost.

Rich: What do you mean almost?

Keara: Pam Hanna barged through the church doors in an attempt to stop the wedding, but luckily her sister Lindsey Hanna saved the day.

Rich: Pam and Lindsey sisters . . . I knew I saw the resemblance.

Keara: Remember Kali Racavich and Vince Pagnotti . . . they got married but were never seen again.

Rich: How come?

Keara: They took their honeymoon to a cabin in the woods . . . and I guess they got lost.

Rich: Remember Kristen Harris and JT Yarem?

Keara: Sure, are they still together?

Rich: No they broke up . . . they both moved on to bigger and better things.

Keara: Like what?

Rich: Kristen invented a talking magic 8 ball that knows all the answers, and interrupts you when you try to speak.

Keara: Huh, not surprising.

Rich: And JT invented his own language. It's called Jay-Bonics.

Keara: What do you mean?

Rich: Well, for example if I wanted to ask you on a date I would say . . . Keara date now me Friday.

Keara: Other people from our class became famous as well.

Rich: Like who?

Keara: Joe Renaldi became a cameraman under the direction of Ed Higgins, but at the end of the film Ed realized that Joe never had the camera turned on.

Rich: Rob Donnelly grew up to direct Blossom and it stars his long lost sister Allison Fetch . . . Whoa!

Keara: Maria Dente is a body double for corpses and people who suffer from hypothermia.

Rich: Dershna Patel became a singer.

Keara: Oh and she also found out that she's Irish too.

Rich: Really.

Keara: Tony Nicoletto is the funniest comic on HBO.

Rich: Ashlie Fedor stars in Sir Mix-A-Lot videos.

Keara: Josh Snodgrass works on Broadway . . . starring Jesus in Jesus Christ Superstar.

Rich: Bryan Douglas became a famous singer . . . devoted an entire CD to Mike Morgan.

Keara: Oh yeah, and Bobby Slusher wrote a book about his life called Slusher's Fables . . . obviously a fictional tale.

Rich: Dan Wayno fulfilled his dream by changing his identity to Pookie Vilardi . . . becoming the world's greatest film star.

Keara: Sarkis Tulaney followed in his father's footsteps.

Rich: Oh, so he makes videos in the back of his rig.

Keara: Yeah, and Caitlin Mallis just applied for a job with him.

Rich: Wow, that's surprising!

Keara: Bobby and Jessie Ware started their own bodyguard company . . . it's called the Ware-Bears.

Rich: Tony Sposto became a professional wrestler in the WWF as the next 1-2-3 Kid.

Keara: Liana Silva became a professional volleyball player for Brazil.

Rich: Mike Celuck built the world's largest Lawnmower.

Keara: Justin Ransom stars in the sequel to Mr. Holland's Opus.

Rich: Gary Beck invented the padded curbs . . . you know to protect the wild side in all of us.

Keara: Jesse Richardson is an artist whose works are exhibited in famous museums around the world.

Rich: Wow, we had a lot of people who made it big.

Keara: What ever happened to Steve Gronski and Bill Gnall?

Rich: Last I heard they took a long trip and have been in different world ever since.

Keara: Speaking of different worlds, Denise Ziagos and Amy Connors moved.

Rich: To where?

Keara: Back to the sixties.

Rich: What ever happened to Lindsey Griffiths?

Keara: She opened up her own tattoo parlor.

Rich: How's the business doing?

Keara: Not too good . . . she criticizes any idea you have . . . it's sooo annoying.

Rich: I heard Tiffany Moeller owns Orloskis.

Keara: Jeff Derenick owns his own restaurant where he is the chef.

Rich: Mark Samsell took over the Windsor Inn, where he gives everyone the scoop on things.

Keara: Ryan Lindsay became the world's clumsiest psychics . . . every time he touches the crystal ball his hand slides off.

Rich: Melissa Bankowski opened up her own beauty shop it's called Beautiful Haaooooorrrr.

Keara: Luke opened his own skin care firm.

Rich: I heard about that. He tries to cure everyone's poor skin.

Keara: Pat Shaffer is the manager of Dunkin Donuts.

Rich: The Store?

Keara: No, the parking lot.

Rich: Figures.

Keara: Didn't Jason Posluszny open up his own bar?

Rich: Yeah, it's called Bernie's Happy Beverage.

Keara: Oh, that's right.

Rich: Frank Moeller and Jim Cravetts opened their own bus driving business . . . they drive the bus to school and get off with the kids.

Keara: Brenda Tabor started her own dating service, but I don't know all the details.

Rich: I know them . . . the qualifications are: you have to be a male, between the ages of 16 and 18, drive an expensive car, must be rich, from Old Forge, must be materialistic and spoiled, must be willing to end the relationship when she wants to, and must be very popular.

Keara: I heard the success rate is 1-3 days.

Rich: Speaking of dating . . . Theresa Kinney finds herself still dating older men.

Keara: Really.

Rich: Jeff Evans owns Febbos Sporting goods.

Keara: I didn't know that.

Rich: I never knew that many people became so successful.

Keara: Know what I heard? Paul Rodney works for the Prince of England . . . you know, Prince Albert.

Rich: Eric McGowen worked for the FDA, but from all the pressure of his job and worrying if Erin Kishel would leave him for a certain someone, he quit his job to cut grass.

Keara: Doesn't Mark Malinowski work for the government?

Rich: He is the best agent the U.S. ever had.

Keara: Nolan Hahn works on Howard Stern taking care of Hank the Drunken Dorf.

Rich: Did you hear about Mike Trescavage? He's the manager of Sloan baseball field.

Keara: Oh, I thought he quit that job.

Rich: He's trying, but he can't . . . he's afraid to leave.

Keara: Jeff Wincovitch still works for DW Richards. He got promoted to chicken manager.

Rich: Speaking of farm animals, Nicole Field works on a farm.

Keara: Doesn't she take care of the ducks?

Rich: She has to . . . they think she's their mother.

Keara: Speaking of farms, Miranda Staretz started one in order to raise all of her children.

Rich: That's interesting.

Keara: Oh, remember John Wieckowski?

Rich: I heard that him and Carly broke up.

Keara: He said she wasn't spending enough time with him or giving him enough attention.

Rich: Speaking of attention, did you hear Andy Rivera lost his pet dog.

Keara: Oh really what was his name?

Rich: Surprisingly, the dog's name was . . . you'll never guess . . . Attention.

Keara: Oh that's right, I heard Andy has been looking for it for years.

Rich: Yeah, he even called people to join the search party but no one would help except for his one true love . . . Melissa Williams.

Keara: Oh really, well some people became teachers.

Rich: Like who?

Keara: Stacey Sharek became an award winning teacher.

Rich: She deserves it . . . she always does her best.

Keara: Well, Mike Basile teaches kindergarten so it's easy for him to find a date.

Rich: Ryan Getts followed in his idol's footsteps . . . he's now known as Señor Getts.

Keara: Oh that's right . . . doesn't he teach his son . . . oh what's his name . . .

Rich: . . . I think his name is Raaallllpppphhhh.

Keara: Rob Flannery is a speech teacher. I was trying to talk to him but I couldn't get a single word in . . . he wouldn't stop talking!

Rich: Really? Hey do you know what ever happened to Debbie Christiano?

Keara: She walks around the street all day listening to Guns and Roses.

Rich: What ever happened to Martina Wheeler?

Keara: She became the first woman to win the Ultimate Fighting Championship . . . speaking of fighting, what ever happened to Jason Mitchell?

Rich: I saw Jason . . . I mean Father Jason at his monastery preaching about controlling your temper and how fighting is not the answer.

Keara: Oh yes, and Rachael Mallis fulfilled her dream of proving that religion is what this world needs.

Rich: I need a minute to reflect . . .

Keara: I heard Jesse Jones beat up James Denke and he moved back to Texas.

Rich: Oh yeah, I forgot about him . . . whatever.

Keara: What ever happened to Stacey Hronich and John Young?

Rich: Oh you mean after eighth grade . . . no one is really sure.

Keara: I heard Joe Aniska became a professional poker player . . . but he had to quit because he couldn't keep a straight face.

Rich: So now he's a full-time ballerina.

Keara: What ever happened to Mike Morgan?

Rich: He became the first person to try to mate a pig and a ball.

Keara: Really, what will he call it?

Rich: A Ball Hog.

Keara: That matches him.

Rich: Did you see Amanda McCawley recently? She's been in therapy since she found out she wasn't in Old Forge's year-book, but was in Riverside's instead.

Keara: No, but I heard about it.

Rich: I saw Tom Coolbaugh working out in the gym . . . he must still think he's sexy.

Keara: Still???

Rich: I saw Shari D'Annunzio at the Arena.

Keara: I guess some things never change.

Rich: I heard Sheena Daniels still hangs off the back of a quad riding around the Moosic baseball field.

Keara: Casey Berkosky married his high school sweetheart . . . his best friend Ricky.

Rich: Matt Grasso became the first man to raise the largest family of skate rats.

Keara: Speaking of rodents . . . didn't Joe Reed become the head track coach at Riverside?

Rich: Did you hear what happened to Chris Callis and Joe Cali?

Keara: No, what?

Rich: Chris married Johanna Bannick and Joe now runs vo-tech.

Keara: Oh right.

Rich: Danielle Williams works at Mattress Man so she has no trouble sleeping on the job.

Keara: Interesting.

Rich: Lucy Kristoff and her sister became Motley Crue roadies.

Keara: Kyle Lillis became the Chief of the Taylor Fire Department.

Rich: Did you hear Pam Gursky and her boyfriend Soltice got married?

Keara: No, but I saw Tom Maines on the sideline during an LJC football game.

Rich: Yeah I know, he's been the mascot for the last ten years.

Keara: Wow, we had a lot of interesting people in our grade.

Rich: Yeah it was good times.

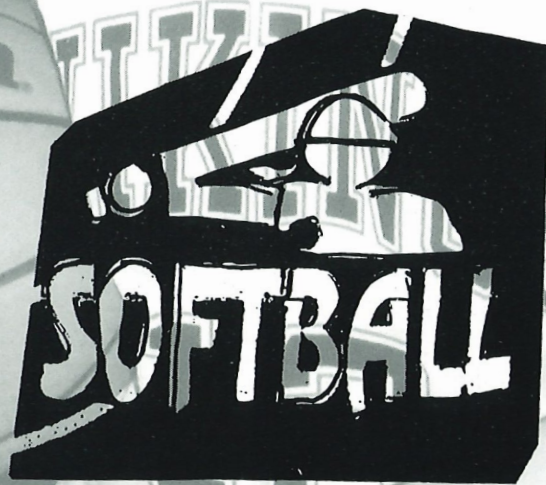

Keara: Well nice talking to you Rich, good luck with your modeling career.

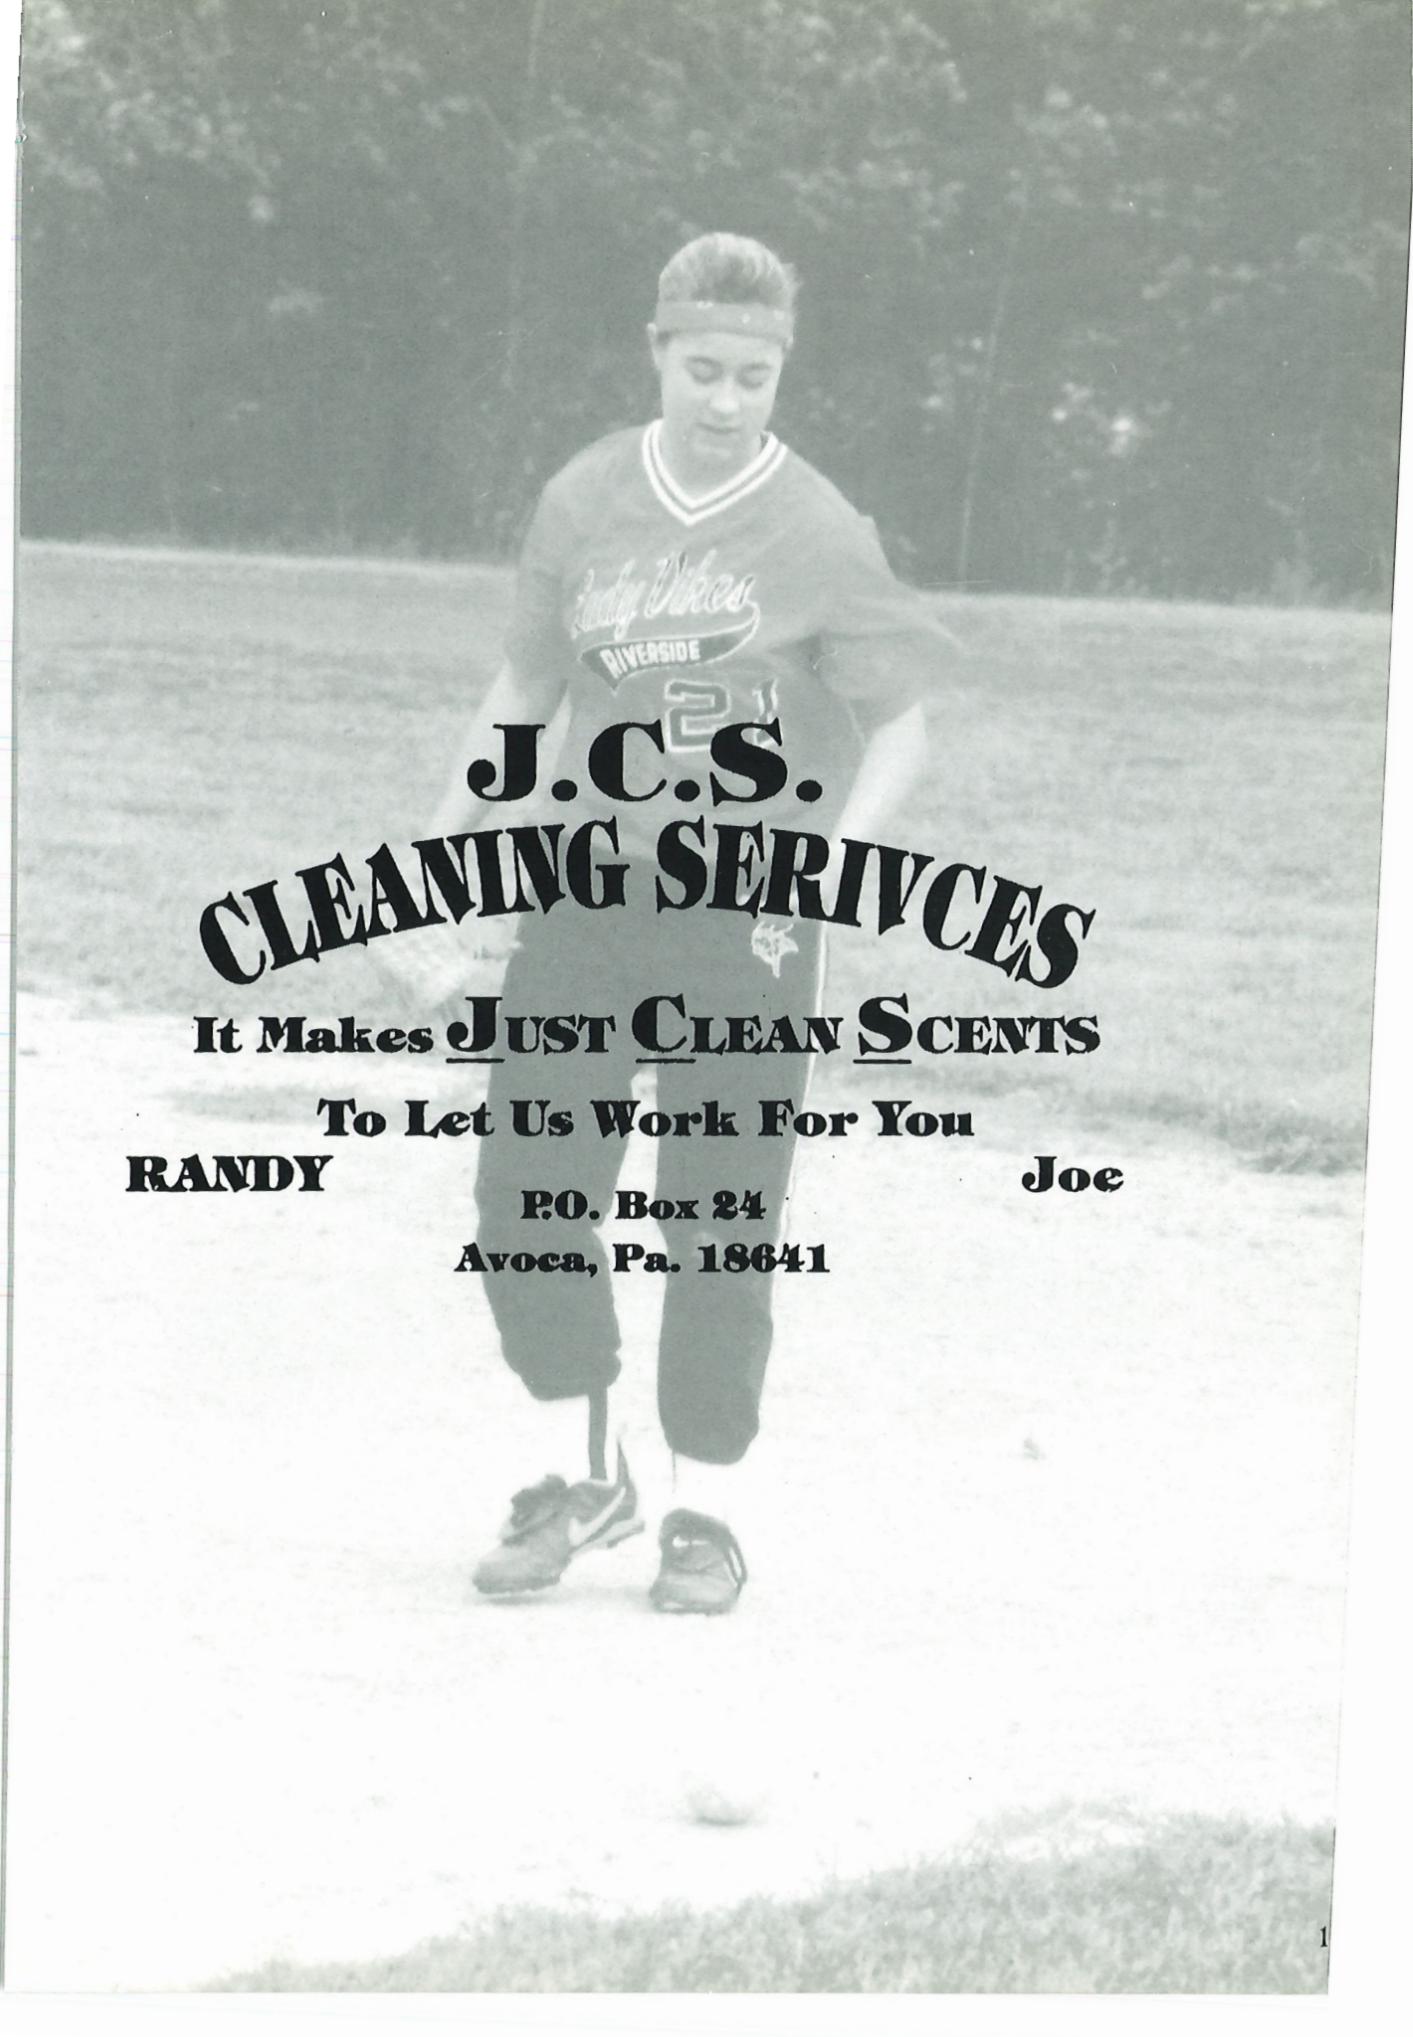

Rich: Thank you . . . tell Koval I said hi.

Keara: I will . . . bye.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The yearbook staff for the 2000 Viking was small, but very hard working. The members who gave much of their time were Kristen Har, Caitlin Mallis, Bryan Douglas, Jordan Racavich, and Rachael Mallis. Other huge contributors were J.T. Yarem, Chrissy Casale, No Ann Lucchi, and Melissa Williams. Thanks guys for all the time and effort!!!
